

FELLOWSHIP RECOMMENDATION LETTER FROM PROFESSOR

Dear Selection Committee:

I am writing this letter in enthusiastic support of Student Name's candidacy for an Equal Justice Works Fellowship. I have known Mr. N. as a law student starting when he was a student in my Contracts course during his first year of law school. On the basis of my own contacts with Mr. N. and a review of his law school file, I am confident that Mr. N. has both the intellectual and the personal skills that will make him an exceptional Fellow, and a lawyer whom Northeastern will be proud to claim as an alumnus.

As Mr. N.'s academic record, and the evaluations from his co-op experiences, indicate, he is one of our strongest students. His performance in my Contracts class placed him among my top students, both in terms of his examination and as reflected in his participation in the class. Mr. N. both writes and speaks with unusual clarity and apparent ease. His ability to grasp and manipulate legal doctrine is very strong. I was particularly impressed with his ability to delve into the analytic details of legal argumentation while preserving a strong sense of the experiential context from which the legal issues arise. This is a talent that most students only develop gradually, often not until after they leave law school. But for Mr. N. it seems to come quite naturally, and it evidently has served him well in his various practice experiences, both before and during law school. He clearly has the tools, both analytic and synthetic, to become an exceptionally skilled lawyer.

Mr. N. also impresses me as an unusually conscientious, committed, and mature person. He comes to Northeastern with a long and impressive record of achievement in civic and voluntary activities, and he has made full use of the numerous opportunities our program affords to extend and develop his commitment to social change and the representation of marginalized people. An Equal Justice Works Fellowship will be a natural continuation of the path he has been blazing since he was in college, and one that he will undoubtedly carry forward with distinction and accomplishment.

In short, I recommend Mr. N. to you enthusiastically and without reservation. If I can be of any further assistance in your review of his candidacy, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,
Professor of Law
