Dear [Mr./Mrs./Ms.] [Hiring Manager's Name],

Upon learning about the requirement of a new High School College Counselor in your *, I quickened to write this letter, and submit my resume for your kind consideration. With my background spanning more than 10 years in the school counseling field, I have worked supporting students and the institution. With my knowledge and experience, I am confident that I can bring trust and honesty to the students that I am counseling which can make difference and affect their entire future positively.

A portion of my accomplishments from my resume pocket is listed here for your quick glance-

- An enthusiastic and motivated professional with several years of experience in providing academic support and advice at the post-secondary level.
- Excellent experience in a counselor role with  College evaluating students' performance, connecting with various individuals, and recommending programs and courses that help students overcome their challenges and achieve their career objectives.
- Continually leveraging my communication and observation skills to foster empathic relationships with students and advise them on program and career selection and overall goal determination.
- Experience working with traditional, non-traditional, domestic, and international level students.
- Connecting students with placement houses, financial support programs, and on-the-job training sources.

With my Master's degree in counseling from the reputed  University, with my commitment to the field in advising college students to meet their career goals, I am well prepared to extend my services to * as your next High School College Counselor. I would like to discuss with you the needs of your students and how my knowledge and past experience can be a valuable asset to them. Hoping to meet you in person at your earliest possible convenience.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
