Portrait De Hawaii:

Japanese Immigrant Clothing in Hawaii, 1885-1941 Barbara F. Kawakami, 1995-02-01 Between 1886 and 1924 thousands of Japanese journeyed to Hawaii to work the sugarcane plantations First the men came followed by brides known only from their pictures for marriages arranged by brokers This book tells the story of two generations of plantation workers as revealed by the clothing they brought with them and the adaptations they made to it to accommodate the harsh conditions of plantation labor Barbara Kawakami has created a vivid picture highlighted by little known facts gleaned from extensive interviews from study of preserved pieces of clothing and how they were constructed and from the literature She shows that as the cloth preferred by the immigrants shifted from kasuri tie dyed fabric from Japan to palaka heavy cotton cloth woven in a white plaid pattern on a dark blue background so too their outlooks shifted from those of foreigners to those of Japanese Americans Chapters on wedding and funeral attire present a cultural history of the life events at which they were worn and the examination of work casual and children s clothing shows us the social fabric of the issei first generation Japanese Changes that occurred in nisei second generation tradition and clothing are also addressed The book is illustrated with rare photographs of the period from family collections

Hawaiian National Bibliography, 1780-1900 David W. Forbes, 1999-02-01 This comprehensive annotated multivolume bibliography is a record of all printed works touching on some aspect of the political religious cultural or social history of the Hawaiian Islands from the first printed notice mentioning the Islands in a German periodical of January 1780 to the beginning of the twentieth century when the Islands ceased to be a separate political entity Volume I covers the period from 1780 to 1830 when exploratory voyages to the northern Pacific had largely concluded and the arrival of improved printing equipment in the Islands resulted in a substantial increase in the number of works printed by the Mission Press in Honolulu In addition to books and pamphlets the bibliography includes newspaper and periodical accounts and single sheet publications such as broadsides circulars playbills and handbills because they often contain the only eyewitness or contemporary description of an important event or individual Entries pertaining to Captain Cook s Third Voyage dominate the first twenty years of the bibliography They reflect the profound impact of the voyage on both the Hawaiian culture and on nineteenth century European thought Extensive annotations provide a brief summary of approximately 760 published works in the first volume of the bibliography All known editions of each work are listed together with the exact title date of publication size of the volume collation of pages number and type of plates and maps references and location of copies The bibliography will be invaluable to scholars librarians rare book sellers and book collectors within the field of Hawaiiana
