Tarsila Do Amaral Stephanie D'Alessandro, Luis Pérez Oramas, 2017-01-01 An exploration of the innovative quintessentially Brazilian painter who merged modernism with the brilliant energy and culture of her homeland Tarsila do Amaral 1886-1973 was a central figure at the genesis of modern art in her native Brazil and her influence reverberates throughout 20th and 21st century art Although relatively little known outside Latin America her work deserves to be understood and admired by a wide contemporary audience This publication establishes her rich background in European modernism which included associations in Paris with artists Fernand Léger and Constantin Brancusi dealer Ambroise Vollard and poet Blaise Cendrars Tarsila as she is known affectionately in Brazil synthesized avant-garde aesthetics with Brazilian subjects creating stylized exaggerated figures and landscapes inspired by her native country that were powerful emblems of the Brazilian modernist project known as Antropofagia Featuring a selection of Tarsila's major paintings this important volume conveys her vital role in the emerging modern art scene of Brazil the community of artists and writers including poets Oswald de Andrade and Mário de Andrade with whom she explored and developed a Brazilian modernism and how she was subsequently embraced as a national cultural icon At the same time an analysis of Tarsila's legacy questions traditional perceptions of the 20th century art world and asserts the significant role that Tarsila and others in Latin America had in shaping the global trajectory of modernism Portrait de famille Greice Martins, 2015-02-12 L relationship with his wife who served as the subject of some of his most iconic portraits Paul C zanne s 1839 1906 portraits of Hortense Fiquet 1850 1922 his wife and the subject of some of his iconic portraits rank among the most powerful of their kind in French modernism Yet posterity has not been kind to Madame C zanne She was called a distraction blamed for her husband s lackluster landscapes and disdained for her impenetrable expression in the paintings The reality is more complex for while Fiquet may not have been the passion of C zanne s lifetime she was a willing accomplice as model mother of his only son and unwavering partner against all odds Madame C zanne examines this unique relationship as it looks at C zanne the painter draftsman and portraitist Featuring 24 of C zanne s oil portraits of Fiquet and most of the known drawings Madame C zanne both reevaluates with insight and compassion the long held misconceptions about the C zannes unconventional marriage and shows how C zanne s portraits of his wife provide a lens through which to better understand his

Myers, Allison Stielau, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2009 The vibrant late paintings of Pierre Bonnard 1867 1947 are considered by many to be among his finest achievements Working in a small converted bedroom of his villa in the south of France Bonnard suffused his late canvases with radiant Mediterranean light and dazzling color Although his subjects were close at hand usually everyday scenes taken from his immediate surroundings such as the dining room table being set for breakfast or a jug of flowers perched on the mantelpiece Bonnard rarely painted from life Instead he preferred to make pencil sketches in small diaries and then rely on these along with his memory once in the studio This volume which accompanies the first exhibition to focus on the interior and related still life imagery from the last decades of Bonnard's long career presents more than seventy five paintings drawings and works on paper many of them rarely seen in public and in some cases little known Although Bonnard's legacy may be removed from the succession of trends that today we consider the foundation of modernism his contribution to French art in the early decades of the twentieth century is far more profound than history has generally acknowledged In their insightful essays and catalogue entries the authors bring fresh critical perspectives to the ongoing reappraisal of Bonnard's reputation and to his place within the narrative of twentieth century art

Jacket Pablo Picasso Dr Enrique Mallen, 2018-04-23 This book explores the interaction between collectors dealers and exhibitions in Pablo Picasso's entire career The former two often played a determining role in which artworks were included in expositions as well as their availability and value in the art market The term collector dealer must often be used in combination since the distinction between both is often unclear Heinz Berggruen for instance identified himself primarily as a collector although he also sold quite a few Picassos through his Paris gallery On the whole however dealers bought more often than collectors and they bought works by artists they were already involved with While some dealers were above all professional gallery owners most were mainly collectors who sporadically sold items from their collection Picasso's first known dealer was Pere Manyach whom he met as he travelled to Paris in 1900 when he was only 19 years old As his representative Manyach went about setting up exhibitions of his works at galleries in the French capital such as Bethe Weills and Ambroise Vollard's Picasso's first major exhibition took place in 1901 at Vollard's Daniel Henry Kahnweiler and Leonce Rosenberg came in after Vollard lost interest during the Cubist period as they had a manifest preference for the new style Like Vollard later dealers often preferred the more conventional Neoclassical phase in Picasso This was the case with Leonce's brother Paul Rosenberg The book is organized chronologically and discusses the interaction between Picasso's collectors dealers and exhibitions as they take place Once collectors acquired an artwork their willingness to lend them to exhibitions or their necessity to submit them to auction had a direct impact on Picassos prominence in the art world The Wrightsman Pictures Jayne Wrightsman, 2005 This lavish catalogue presents 150 European paintings pastels and drawings from the late fifteenth to the mid nineteenth century that have been given to the Metropolitan Museum by Mr and Mrs Charles Wrightsman or are still held in Mrs Wrightsman s private collection These notable works were collected over the past four decades many of them with the Museum in mind some were purchased by the Museum through the Wrightsman Fund Highlights of the book include masterpieces by Vermeer El Greco Rubens Van Dyck Georges de La Tour Jacques Louis David and Caspar David Friedrich as well as numerous paintings by the eighteenth century Venetian artists Canaletto Guardi and the Tiepolos father and son plus a dozen remarkable portrait drawings by Ingres Each work is reproduced in color and is accompanied by a short essay Sensational Religion Sally M.
