

2024 ECONOMICS 12 MACROECONOMICS ESSAYS (P1)

A. CIRCULAR FLOW

1. Discuss in detail the markets within the FOUR-SECTOR model. (20 marks)

INTRODUCTION

- ✓ Market is the mechanism that brings buyers and sellers together to exchange goods and services. ✓✓
- ✓ Markets coordinate economic activities and determine prices of goods and services. ✓✓

BODY

PRODUCT AND FACTOR MARKETS

Product market/Goods/Output markets ✓

- Product market is where goods and services are exchanged for money. ✓✓
- E.g. Shoprite retailer. ✓
- These are markets for consumer goods and services. ✓✓
- In economics a distinction is made between goods and services:
- Goods are defined as any tangible items such as clothing, food cars that satisfy human wants or need. ✓✓
- Capital and consumer goods are traded in these markets. ✓✓
- Capital goods market are trading buildings and machinery. ✓✓
- Consumer goods markets are trading durable consumer goods, semi-durable goods and non-durable goods. ✓✓
- Services are defined as non-tangible actions e.g. wholesalers and retailer, transport and financial markets. ✓✓

Factor market/Resource/Input markets ✓

- Factor market is where factors of production are traded. ✓✓ e.g. labour is hired and capital is borrowed. ✓✓
- Households sell factors of production in this market. ✓✓
- These services earn wages for labour, interest for capital, rent for natural resources and profits for entrepreneurship. ✓✓
- Labour can be bought and sold in this market. ✓✓
- Factor market includes labour, property and financial markets. ✓✓
 - ✓ Product markets and factor markets are related in the sense that the demand for factor services is a derived demand. ✓✓

The International Business Environment Leslie Hamilton, Philip Webster, 2018 The most multi perspective succinct and applied guide to international business environments

Dynamics of Caste and Law: Dalits, Oppression and Constitutional Democracy in India Dag-Erik Berg, 2020-02-27 The book explains how questions of caste and law involve persistent challenges concerning inequality and democracy in India's postcolonial state

Economic Inequality, Neoliberalism, and the American Community College Patrick Sullivan, 2017-05-11 This book aims to deepen public understanding of the community college and to challenge our longstanding reliance on a deficit model for defining this important powerful and transformative institution Featuring a unique combination of data and research Sullivan seeks to help redefine update and reshape public perception about community colleges This book gives serious attention to student voices and includes narratives written by community college students about their experiences attending college at an open admissions institution Sullivan examines the history of the modern community college and the economic model that is driving much of the current discussion in higher education today Sullivan argues that the community college has done much to promote social justice and economic equality in America since the founding of the modern community college in 1947 by the Truman Commission

Essays on Violence Priyadarshini Vijaisri, 2024-08-30 Essays on Violence Pollution Sacrifice and Madness is an exploration of the intersecting histories of caste and violence in the Indian context foregrounding ideational and temporal continuities and deep linkages between ideas processes and events by combing historical sources with ethnographic data Traversing the diverse and conflicting strands in Indian traditions it traces the centrality of the idea of violence in discourses on sacrificial violence self body evil and danger and their reverberations in critical moments of Indian history The discourse on caste violence is unpacked through analysis of concepts like danda matsyanyaya and vadhoavadha religious and textual exegesis of negation and demonization and historical sites to locate processes of transitions in cultures of violence via the Telangana armed uprising and imagined cartography of the incipient nation By drawing attention to the nature of caste violence in postcolonial Andhra the book offers glimpses into the emergence of contradictory pulls in the forging of caste identities nationhood and the shifts in the subjectivity of outcastes within the context of repressive political culture of postcolonial democratic experience

Obstacles to Environmental Progress Peter C. Schulze, 2022-08-22 Why when so many people understand the severity of environmental problems is progress so slow and sustainability such a distant goal What gets in the way Perhaps you have immediately thought of several barriers In Obstacles to Environmental Progress Peter Schulze identifies 18 practical obstacles that routinely and predictably hinder U S progress on existing environmental problems The obstacles apply to problems small and large and in most cases regardless of whether an issue is controversial Though the book focuses on the U S most of the obstacles pertain elsewhere as well The obstacles fall into three categories scientific challenges to anticipating and detecting problems political and economic factors that interfere with responding and obstacles to effective responses While all the obstacles are predictable and common they have not been systematically studied as related phenomena perhaps because they span a wide range of academic disciplines In practice they often arise as surprises that are then addressed in an ad hoc manner Might they be better understood and thus more readily anticipated and overcome or avoided The book seeks to hasten environmental progress by forewarning and thus forearming those who are striving or will soon be striving for environmental progress and by drawing scholarly attention to the obstacles as a set of related phenomena to systematically understand and more quickly overcome Praise for Obstacles to Environmental Projects I have never come across another book that gives students such an accessible and helpful guide to the broad scope of the challenges facing an environmentally sound and sustainable future Al Wurth Lehigh University Property, Land, Revenue, and Policy J. Albert Rorabacher, 2016-09-13 For the first century and a half of its nearly 275 year existence the English East India Company remained ostensibly a mercantile enterprise satisfied to simply trade and to compete with other European traders In the middle of the eighteenth century as a response to French expansion in India the East India Company redefined itself becoming an active participant in India's game of thrones This book charts that transition Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Rural Wage Employment in Developing Countries Carlos Oya, Nicola Pontara, 2015-05-22 There is a striking scarcity of work conducted on rural labour markets in the developing world particularly in Africa This book aims to fill this gap by bringing together a group of contributors who boast substantial field experience researching rural wage employment in various developing countries It provides critical perspectives on mainstream approaches to rural agrarian development and analysis of agrarian change and rural transformations from a long term perspective This book challenges the notion that rural areas in low and middle income countries are dominated by self employment It purports that this conventional view is largely due to the application of conceptual frameworks and statistical conventions that are ill equipped to capture labour market participation The contributions in this book offer a variety of methodological lessons for the study of rural labour markets focusing in particular on the use of mixed methods in micro level field research and more emphasis on capturing occupation multiplicity The emphasis on context history and specific configurations of power relations affecting rural labour market outcomes are key and reoccurring features of this book This analysis will help readers think about policy options to improve the quantity and quality of rural wage employment their impact on the poorest rural people and their political feasibility in each context

New Urban Management: Attracting Value Flows to Branded Hubs A. Anttiroiko, 2015-06-02 New Urban Management discusses how the logic of economic flows poses a challenge to local governments throughout the world The book argues that the increased fluidity in economic life must have its reflection in local economic development policy We Are Better Than This Robyn Cadwallader, 2015-10-07 We Are Better Than This is a collection of essays and poetry addressing the Australian government's asylum seeker policy The aims of the book are several to provide some of the information about the situation in detention camps that is being withheld by the government to correct some of the government's misrepresentations of the current situation to clarify some of the complex legal issues surrounding the right to seek asylum and to give some insight into the plight of those who are seeking asylum. It is hoped that this book will better inform people about the government's policies to support those who are unsatisfied and seeking to change the situation as well as those who are uncertain and need more easily accessible and reliable information. Contributors are drawn from several areas of expertise and engagement with asylum seekers.

A New Social Question Casey Harison, 2015-11-25 A New Social Question Capitalism Socialism and Utopia brings together a selection of papers presented at the conference on Capitalism and Socialism Utopia Globalization and Revolution at New Harmony Indiana in 2014. New Harmony is best known as the site of industrialist Robert Owen's experiment in communal living in 1825 and it was Owen's legacy that drew scholars from across the Atlantic. Owen's work and his experiment at New Harmony again have currency as the world looks back on the 2008 economic crisis and as socialism seemingly banished with the failure of experiments in Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union at the end of the last century has returned to the political and economic lexicon. As David Harvey Thomas Piketty and Joyce Appleby have lately reminded us, capitalism particularly the forms it has assumed since 1945 is probably exceptional perhaps ephemeral but also dynamic and resilient. If the Great Recession has derailed personal lives destabilized economies and unnerved politicians, it has also reminded us that we have not reached the end of history. Where there was once a Social Question, there is now a New Social Question. This edited multi-disciplinary volume will appeal to readers in political science economics history sociology anthropology literature communications and cultural studies and to academic audiences in North America Britain and elsewhere.

Socially Just, Radical Alternatives for Education and Youth Work Practice Charlie Cooper, Sinéad Gormally, Gill Hughes, 2015-10-12 Challenging dominant discourses in neoliberal marketized societies about working with disconnected young people, this book argues that alternative radical approaches to formal and informal education are necessary to challenge repressive practices and to help build a more equal socially just society.

Disasters, Risks and Revelation Steve Matthewman, 2016-04-29 Disasters are part of the modern condition, a source of physical anxiety and existential angst and they are increasing in frequency, cost and severity. Drawing on both disaster research and social theory, this book offers a critical examination of their causes, consequences and future avoidance.

Imperial Theory and Colonial Pragmatism David J. Gilchrist, 2017-09-04 This book considers the role played by co-operative agriculture as a critical economic model which in Australia helped build public capital, drive economic development and impact political arrangements. In the case of colonial Western Australia, the story of agricultural co-operation is inseparable from that of the story of Charles Harper. Harper was a self-starting pioneering frontiersman who became a political, commercial and agricultural leader in the British Empire's most isolated colony during the second half of the Victorian era. He was convinced of the successful economic future of Western Australia but also pragmatic enough to appreciate that the unique challenges facing the colony were only going to be resolved by the application of unorthodox thinking Using Harper s life as a foil this book examines Imperial economic thinking in relation to the co operative form of economic organisation the development of public capital and socialism It uses this discussion to demonstrate the transfer of socialistic ideas from the centre of the Empire to the farthest reaches of the Antipodes where they were used to provide a rhetorical crutch in support of purely pragmatic co operative establishments

Saving Capitalism Robert Reich,2016-06-02 A very good guide to the state we re in Paul Krugman New York Review of Books A well written thought provoking book by one of America s leading economic thinkers and progressive champions Huffington Post Do you recall a time when the income of a single schoolteacher or baker or salesman or mechanic was enough to buy a home have two cars and raise a family Robert Reich does in the 1950s his father sold clothes to factory workers and the family earnt enough to live comfortably Today this middle class is rapidly shrinking American income inequality and wealth disparity is the greatest it s been in eighty years As Reich who served in three US administrations shows the threat to capitalism is no longer communism or fascism but a steady undermining of the trust modern societies need for growth and stability With an exclusive chapter for Icon s edition Saving Capitalism is passionate yet practical sweeping yet exactly argued a revelatory indictment of the economic status quo and an empowering call to action

Chinese Students in UK Further Education Rosemary A. Reynolds,2017-12-15 Chinese students in the UK have been increasing in number for many years yet competition from other Western educators and increasing investment in China s own education system has led to concern that UK institutions may soon see a decline in their market share Dr Reynolds addresses this issue in Chinese Students in UK Further Education by attempting to understand students experiences from their perspective Beginning with an exploration of why these students choose to come and study in the UK and why they are coming at younger ages the book goes on to discuss topics such as risk technology and diversity in order to understand which factors have the greatest influence on where they choose to study and whether they choose to remain at an institution Drawing on data from two different education institutions providers of GCSE A level programmes for students aged 16 18 years Dr Reynolds attempts to understand what these students experience during their studies how they manage new social relationships and whether upon course completion they achieved the results they desired at the outset Moreover the book aims to ascertain whether the students feel in hindsight that the decision to risk investing in UK further education was right and what they might communicate about UK study to contacts in China and elsewhere The book examines what further education institutions do well and where they might improve to help develop Chinese students educational experiences As such it will be essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduates in the fields of further education sociology of education international and intercultural education and mobility studies

Crisis and Class War in Egypt Sean F. McMahon,2016-10-15 In 2011 capital s crisis erupted in Egyptian society This eruption and subsequent politics have been misrepresented as revolutionary as the working class was and is increasingly so devalued and disempowered In Crisis and Class War in Egypt Sean F McMahon critically analyses Egypt's recent political history He argues that the so called revolution was the appearance of capital's destruction of the value of the Egyptian working class and an existential crisis for capital In response productive capital in the form of the military used disposed of and replaced its junior partners in governing first the predatory capital of the Mubarak state with the commodity capital of the Muslim Brotherhood and then commodity capital with the finance capital of the Gulf Cooperation Council These reconfigurations have been expressed in all manner of reactionary governmental arrangements including constitutions legislation and currency reform Extending today's analysis into the near future McMahon sees the war of Egyptian society intensifying and increasingly violent lives for Egyptian workers Critical Perspectives on Agrarian Transition B. B.

Mohanty, 2016-01-29 This book evaluates the relevance of classical debates on agrarian transition and extends the horizon of contemporary debates in the Indian context linking national trends with regional experiences It identifies new dynamics in agrarian political economy and presents a comprehensive account of diverse aspects of capitalist transition both at theoretical and empirical levels The essays discuss several neglected domains in agricultural economics such as discursive dimensions of agrarian relations and limitations of stereotypical binaries between capital and non capital rural and urban sectors agriculture and industry and accumulation and subsistence With contributions from major scholars in the field this volume will be useful to scholars and researchers of agriculture economics political economy sociology rural development and development studies
