Le Présent du passé M.J.G. De Jong, 1994 Ce livre traite des oeuvres litt raires les plus diverses europ ennes ou non contemporaines ou plus anciennes Pour le comparatiste Martin de Jong la litt rature ne conna t pas de fronti res ni dans l espace ni dans le temps Chaque texte est situ dans un ensemble plus large d abord dans l oeuvre de l auteur et parfois dans sa vie ensuite par rapport d autres textes Cette fa on d aborder a litt rature d bouche souvent sur la constatation que l crivain quelles que soient sa langue et sa culture ne trouve qu'un nombre limité de catégories littéraires pour manifester son état de sa mentalité ou sa vision du monde. Mais c'est finalement avec le texte et non pas avec l'auteur que le lecteur établit la communication littéraire. L'auteur croit avoir le premier mot, le lecteur aura l'avant-dernier. Jacques Derrida Geoffrey Bennington, Jacques Derrida, 1993. Geoffrey Bennington sets out here to write a systematic account of the thought of Jacques Derrida. Responding to Bennington's text at every turn is Derrida's own excerpts from his life and thought that appearing at the bottom of each page resist circumscription. Together these texts as a dialogue and a contest constitute a remarkably in-depth critical introduction to one of the leading philosophers of the twentieth century and at the same time demonstrate the illusions inherent in such a project. Bennington's account of Derrida broader in scope than any previously done leads the reader through the philosopher's familiar yet still widely misunderstood work on language and writing to the less familiar and altogether more mysterious themes of signature, sexual difference, law and affirmation. Seeking to escape this systematic rendering in fact to prove it impossible, Derrida interweaves Bennington's text with surprising and disruptive periphrases, reflections on his mother's death, agony commentaries on St Augustine's Confessions, memories of childhood, remarks on Judaism and references to his collaborator's efforts. This extraordinary book offers on the one hand a clear and compelling account of one of the most difficult and important contemporary thinkers and on the other one of that thinker's strangest and most unexpected texts. Far from putting an end to the need to discuss Derrida, Bennington's text might have originally intended or pretended this dual text opens new dimensions in the philosopher's thought and work and extends its challenge.

For Whom the Bell Tolls. Pour Qui Sonne Le Glas ... Traduit Par Denise V. Ayme Ernest Hemingway, Denise V. Ayme, 1944. U.S.A., 1944. The New Georgics, 2016-09-12. The human condition in rural provincial locations is once again gaining status as a subject of European high fiction after several decades in which it was dismissed on aesthetic and ideological grounds. This volume is one of the first attempts to investigate perspectives on local cultures, values and languages both systematically and in a European context. It does so by examining the works of a variety of authors including Hugo Claus, Llamazares, Bergounioux and Millet, Buffalino and Consolo and also several Soviet authors who paint a grim picture of a collectivized and thus ossified rurality. How do these themes relate to the ongoing trend of globalization? How do these works, which are often experimental, connect in their form, topics, language and ideological subtext to the traditional rural or regional genres? Far from naively celebrating a lost Eden, most of these new Georgics reflect critically on the tensions in contemporary peripheral rural or regional cultures to the point of parodying the traditional topoi and genres. This book is of interest to those wishing to reflect on the dynamics and conflicts in contemporary European rural culture. Le recueil du coureur de fond Laurent Miani, 2022-08-18.
