Clark, Craig W. Gruber, 2017-10-10 This book examines both academic and practical theories relating to leader development. It broadens the scope of this topic by including data driven theory and proposals from diverse areas that are either not currently represented or are poorly addressed in existing literature. This 15th volume in the Annals of Theoretical Psychology series aims to propose identify and characterize new theoretical educational and practical gaps in leader development. The initial chapters explore concepts related to individual or internal aspects of leaders. Subsequent chapters deconstruct leader development by considering behaviors or skills and various environmental factors that affect development. The book also examines shortcomings of our current understanding of this topic that cuts across multiple disciplines. Topics featured in this book include Cognition readiness to lead courage through dialogue and relationship considerations Behavioral elements and approaches for developing followership conflict management creativity virtue and epistemic cognition in growing leaders for complex environments Seven Steps to establish a Leader and Leadership Education and Development Program The Dark Triad of personality psychobiosocial perspectives and mental ability in leaders. Leader Development Deconstructed will be of interest to research scholars academics educators and practitioners as well as executive coaches college or university administrators military leaders philanthropic and non profit organization leaders and management consultants.

Despite the extensive body of knowledge associated with leader and leadership development significant gaps still exist in our understanding of these processes. This book is a noteworthy effort to help fill in the blanks through empirical research and contextual application. It is worthy of perusal by anyone interested in becoming a more effective leader or leader developer. Bernard Banks Ph D Associate Dean of Leadership Development Northwestern University Kellogg School of Management. One of the most powerful ways leaders can have an impact on others and their mission is to manage for innovation. This book is a great step in moving towards exploring how you do that and I m thrilled to be a part of that conversation. Frances Hesselbein President and CEO Frances Hesselbein Leadership Institute
