Employee Motivation in Saudi Arabia Rodwan Hashim Mohammed Fallatah,Jawad Syed,2017-11-29 This book investigates the relevance of Maslow s hierarchy of needs as a theory of motivation whilst taking into account variances in culture and individual experiences and perspectives Focussing on higher education the book responds to the call for providing alternative conceptual models other than those originating from the Anglo Saxon world The authors take a contextual approach and use the case of Saudi Arabia to understand motivation in a collectivist highly religious and conservative society of the Middle East Providing empirical findings from a study carried out at two Saudi universities differing in their religious outlook this book reveals a hierarchy of needs that is significantly different from the theory proposed by Maslow Religion culture and gender are explored in detail as the authors investigate the relevance of Maslow s theory in a region that is of growing interest to policy makers and practitioners in North America and Europe offering a truly insightful read to an international audience     Islamic Entrepreneurship Rasem N. Kayed,M. Kabir Hassan,2013-12-16 This book discusses the idea that there is a specific Islamic form of entrepreneurship Based on extensive original research amongst small and medium sized enterprises in Saudi Arabia it shows how businesses are started and how they grow in the context of an Islamic economy and society It argues that as specific Islamic approaches to a wide range of economic activities are being formulated and implemented there is indeed a particular Islamic approach to entrepreneurship Examining the relationship between Islamic values and entrepreneurial activity the book considers whether such values can be more effectively used in order to raise the profile of Islamic entrepreneurship and also to promote alternatives to development in the contemporary business environment The book analyses the nature of entrepreneurship and the special qualities of Islamic entrepreneurship and discusses how the Islamic approach to entrepreneurship can be encouraged and developed further still     United States Official Postal Guide ,1948     Daily Bulletin of Orders Affecting the Postal Service
