Subject: Request for Resignation from [Organization Name] Board of Directors

Dear [Board Member's Name],

I trust this letter reaches you well. Following extensive deliberations among the Board of Directors and in consultation with our legal counsel, we have resolved to request your resignation from the Board of Directors of [Organization Name], effective [Date].

The board has identified several instances of conduct that violate our organization's code of ethics and policies, specifically [provide specific examples of misconduct or policy violations]. Despite numerous discussions and warnings aimed at rectifying these issues, there has not been a noticeable improvement in your conduct.

In alignment with the bylaws of [Organization Name] and the legal advice we have garnered, we believe that requesting your resignation is a requisite measure to uphold the integrity, values, and effective functioning of our organization.

We kindly request that you tender your formal resignation by [Deadline Date]. Should we not receive your resignation by the stipulated date, we will be compelled to initiate formal removal proceedings as outlined in our bylaws and as per the legal framework governing our operations.

We acknowledge and appreciate the contributions you have made during your tenure on the board and hope for an amicable resolution to this matter. Should you have any questions or need further clarification, feel free to contact me directly at [Your Phone Number] or [Your Email].

We appreciate your prompt attention to this serious matter.

Warm regards,

Committee on Government Operations,1977 Between Islam and the American Dream Yuting Wang,2013-11-26 Based on a three year ethnographic study of a steadily growing suburban Muslim immigrant congregation in Midwest America this book examines the micro processes through which a group of Muslim immigrants from diverse backgrounds negotiate multiple identities while seeking to become part of American society in the years following 9 11 The author looks into frictions conflicts and schisms within the community to debunk myths and provide a close up look at the experiences of ordinary immigrant Muslims in the United States Instead of treating Muslim immigrants as fundamentally different from others this book views Muslims as multidimensional individuals whose identities are defined by a number of basic social attributes including gender race social class and religiosity Each person portrayed in this ethnography is a complex individual whose hierarchy of identities is shaped by particular events and the larger social environment By focusing on a single congregation this study controls variables related to the particularity of place and presents a thick description of interactions within small groups This book argues that the frictions conflicts and schisms are necessary as much as inevitable in cultivating a composite culture within the American Muslim community marked by diversity leading it onto the path of Americanization

Rebellion at Coranderrk
Diane Barwick,2024-08-01 More than a century ago an Aboriginal community in Victoria campaigned for recognition of their right to occupy and control the small acreage they had farmed for 25 years Others wanted to develop this tract Government spokesmen denied that the occupants had inherited any rights to this land and declared that anyway they were not really Aborigines This book is about the rebellion at Coranderrk Aboriginal Station between 1874 and 1886 It describes how Coranderrk families fought to keep their land To explain why they fought I must begin with the years before to show what this miserable spadeful of ground meant to them and how they came to be there Finally I sketch what ultimately happened First published in 1998 12 years after the death of its author Diane Barwick Rebellion at Coranderrk was an attempt to rectify some of the injustices of the past two hundred plus years in Australia and to prevent similar occurrences in the future It remains acutely relevant This book includes the names and images of people who are now deceased All Australians have good reason to be grateful to Diane Barwick H C Coombs The painstaking research the perceptive judgements of people and events and the brilliant prose combine to produce a magnificent account of the Kulin and their European administrators The book is simply packed with historical reinterpretation and vivid reconstructions of families and individuals C T Stannage The author s research found that Coranderrk is an excellent example of an Aboriginal farming success story It is very relevant to modern land rights protests throughout Australia Canberra Times
