

MBA STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The move towards globalization and unexpected explosion of worldwide free trade and exchange has introduced immense opportunities to create new tools, methodologies and instruments in the financial management field. I am very much interested in contributing my skills and knowledge towards creating optimal and meaningful solutions to different problems in this field. My goal, therefore, is to complete a Master's Degree in International Finance with which I could further advance on learning further analytical approaches towards financial management.

In order to achieve these goals, I have to learn more about the techniques and modern developments in the field of finance, within the financial markets, and learning more about financial applications in order to acquire financial analysis and hands-on experience. I believe that a Master's Degree will give me the theoretical understanding, as well as an in-depth understanding of the practical approaches which aid in the managerial research and decision making skills which can allow me to develop expertise in the essential areas of global corporate operations.

Familiarity with different computer applications, strong quantitative skills, as well as experience gained while I was working on different school projects have already helped me in developing strong analytical abilities, and have also provided me with the confidence in order to tackle modern and advanced issues on a macro level. On top of that, the overall experience that I have gained while doing marketing and studying different marketing strategies have allowed me to develop good communication and interpersonal skills. I am looking forward to being able to apply all of these abilities to the extremely immense opportunities that are currently available at AA University.

I have decided to pursue a Master's Degree at AA University because of the outstanding research facilities and faculty, with emphasis on a high quality learning environment, curriculum flexibility and diversity. I am hoping to be a part of this dynamic culture which can provide me with effective work edge in the future.
