Seeking Equality John Harles,2017-10-25 Seeking Equality compares economic inequality in the United States and Canada The North American neighbors have much in common socially politically and economically yet Canadians enjoy significantly higher levels of equality and material well being Harles explores the values and policy decisions that have influenced these different economic outcomes Drawing on the Canadian experience he explains why a yawning gap between the very rich and the rest should be cause for civic anxiety in the United States and what can be done about it

Scripts of Servitude Beatriz P. Lorente,2017-10-19 This book examines how language is a central resource in transforming migrant women into transnational domestic workers Focusing on the migration of women from the Philippines to Singapore the book unpacks why and how language is embedded in the infrastructure of transnational labor migration that links migrant sending and migrant receiving countries It sheds light on the everyday lives of transnational domestic workers and how they draw on their linguistic repertoires and in particular on English as they cross geographical and social spaces By showing how the transnational mobility of labor is dependent on the selection and performance of particular assemblages of linguistic resources that index migrants as labor and not as people the book provides a powerful lens with which to examine how migration contributes to relationships of inequality and how such inequalities are produced and challenged on the terrain of language

Dynamic Shipping and Port Development in the Globalized Economy Paul Yae-Woo Lee, Kevin Cullinane,2016-04-29 This two volume book presents an in depth analysis of many of the most important issues facing today s shipping and port sectors Volume 1 of Dynamic Shipping and Port Development in the Globalized Economy focuses on the application of theory to practice in Maritime Logistics

South-North Migration of EU Citizens in Times of Crisis Jean-Michel Lafleur, Mikolaj Stanek,2016-12-08 This open access book looks at the migration of Southern European EU citizens from Portugal Spain Italy Greece who move to Northern European Member States Belgium France Germany United Kingdom in response to the global economic crisis Its objective is twofold First it identifies the scale and nature of this new Southern European emigration and examines these migrants socio economic integration in Northern European destination countries This is achieved through an analysis of the most recent data on flows and profiles of this new labour force using sending country and receiving country databases Second it looks at the politics and policies of immigration both from the perspective of the sending and receiving countries Analysing the policies and debates about these new flows in the home and host countries this book shows how contentious the issue of intra EU mobility has recently become in the context of the crisis when the right for EU citizens to move within the EU had previously not been questioned for decades Overall the strength of this edited volume is that it compiles in a systematic way quantitative and qualitative analysis of these renewed Southern European migration flows and draws the lessons from this changing climate on EU migration

Networks Neil M. Coe,Henry Wai-Chung Yeung,2015 Accelerating processes of economic globalization have fundamentally reshaped the organization of the global economy towards much greater integration and functional interdependence through cross border economic activity In this interconnected world system a new form of economic organization has emerged Global Production Networks GPNs This brings together a wide array of economic actors most notably capitalist firms state institutions labour unions consumers and non government organizations in the transnational production of economic value National and sub national economic development in this highly interdependent global economy can no longer be conceived of and understood within the distinct territorial boundaries of individual countries and regions Instead global production networks are organizational platforms through which actors in these different national or regional economies compete and cooperate for a larger share of the creation transformation and capture of value through transnational economic activity They are also vehicles for transferring the value captured between different places This book ultimately aims to develop a theory of global production networks that explains economic development in the interconnected global economy While primarily theoretical in nature it is well grounded in cutting edge empirical work in the parallel and highly impactful strands of social science literature on the changing organization of the global economy relating to global commodity chains GCC global value chains GVC and global production networks GPN The World's Search for Sustainable Development Mukul

Sanwal,2015-11-05 This text traces the evolution of sustainable development and climate change from the time it emerged in international consultations and agreements The three sections of the book focusing on the framework climate change and sustainable development seek to cover the essentials of the politics of natural resource usage at the global level The book explores the evolution of sustainable development and climate change within the framework of the United Nations and the way the concept has been defined through intergovernmental meetings agreements and consensus within the multilateral system It also explores the best ways of reducing the risk to the planet while enabling societies to pursue sustainable development paths The challenges call for a transformation of social systems to facilitate a broadly acceptable change The book also explores the adoption of low carbon models different from the high carbon socio technical systems and related social practices Arun Deep's Self-Help to ICSE Geography Class 10 : 2024-25 Edition (Based on Latest ICSE Syllabus)

On Unemployment Mark R. Reiff, 2015-10-07 With unemployment at historically high rates that show signs of becoming structural there is a pressing need for an in depth exploration of this economic injustice Unemployment is one of the problems most likely to put critical pressure on our political institutions disrupt the social fabric of our way of life and even threaten the continuation of liberalism itself Despite the obvious importance of the problem of unemployment however there has been a curious lack of attention paid to this issue by contemporary non Marxist political philosophers On Unemployment explores the moral implications of the problem of unemployment despite the continuing uncertainty involving both its causes and its cures Reiff takes up a series of questions about the nature of unemployment and what justice has to tell us about what we should do if anything to alleviate it The book comprehensively discusses the related theory and suggests how we might implement these more general observations in the real world It addresses the politics of unemployment and the extent to which opposition to some or all of the book s various proposals stem not from empirical disagreements about the best solutions but from more basic moral disagreements about whether the reduction of unemployment is indeed an appropriate moral goal This exciting new text will be essential for scholars and readers across business economics and finance as well as politics philosophy and sociology
