Resources in Education, 2000 Farm Equipment Directory and Handbook, 1963 Figuring Authorship in Antebellum America Michael Newbury, 1997 Through studies of such writers as Hawthorne Melville and Stowe this book shows how the increased demand for salable entertainment fostered a new consciousness of authorship as a commercial and professional mode of work in the first half of the nineteenth century in America

Out of Earshot Asma Naeem, 2020-01-07 Out of Earshot offers a reconfiguration of three of the nineteenth century's most prolific painters Winslow Homer 1836 1910 Thomas Eakins 1844 1916 and Thomas Dewing 1851 1939 Asma Naeem considers how these painters turned in ways significant for their individual artistic ventures to themes of sound and listening throughout their careers She shows how the aural dimension of these artists' pictures was an ideological product of period class gender cultural racial and technological discourses Equally important by looking at such materials as the artists' papers scientific illustrations and technological brochures Naeem argues that the work of these painters has complex and previously unconsidered connections to developments in sound and listening during a period when unprecedented innovation in the United States led to such inventions as the telegraph and phonograph and forged a technological narrative that continues to have force in the twenty-first century Naeem's unusual approach to the work of these three well-known American artists offers a transformative account of artistic response during their own era and beyond
