Cities of Knowledge Margaret Pugh O'Mara, 2015-02-17 What is the magic formula for turning a place into a high tech capital How can a city or region become a high tech powerhouse like Silicon Valley For over half a century through boom times and bust business leaders and politicians have tried to become the next Silicon Valley but few have succeeded This book examines why high tech development became so economically important late in the twentieth century and why its magic formula of people jobs capital and institutions has been so difficult to replicate Margaret O Mara shows that high tech regions are not simply accidental market creations but cities of knowledge planned communities of scientific production that were shaped and subsidized by the original venture capitalist the Cold War defense complex At the heart of the story is the American research university an institution enriched by Cold War spending and actively engaged in economic development The story of the city of knowledge broadens our understanding of postwar urban history and of the relationship between civil society and the state in late twentieth century America It leads us to further redefine the American suburb as being much more than formless sprawl and shows how it is in fact the ultimate post industrial city Understanding this history and geography is essential to planning for the future of the high tech economy and this book is must reading for anyone interested in building the next Silicon Valley Michigan Christian Advocate ,1893 The Treasury of David;

Bannister, 1979 America Vs. Americans Eric Wade, 2024-02-06 In America vs Americans Eric Wade presents American Laborism a revolutionary new economic system where the greatest commodity isn't cash it's work Capitalism is broken Despite its successes capitalism gives us the largest wealth gap in American history failing Social Security a weak currency and a looming threat of AI destroying our workforce We need a new system one built around people rather than capital A system that values each person's unique contribution ingenuity and hard work their labor A system in which the greatest commodity isn't cash it's work And a system in which Americans at every level of society and government are working together We need American Laborism a revolutionary new system that presents a workable low tax form of capitalism for those who want it and a dignified healthy happy and fulfilled life for everyone else Under American Laborism if you're happy with the current capitalist system great Carry on but you'll get to do it with a smaller government fewer regulations better educated employees and lower taxes And if capitalism hasn't worked out as well for you you get access to unlimited free education and training guaranteed housing and food and a sound asset backed currency Everybody wins American Laborism isn't just a replacement for capitalism It's an upgrade Every American has the right to live a life of dignity to contribute and to ensure that their basic needs are respected by their society

American Laborism can improve the lives of every American by bringing the least among us up without bringing anyone else down It s time to heal our nation It s time for American Laborism
