

Unit 7 Reading Guide

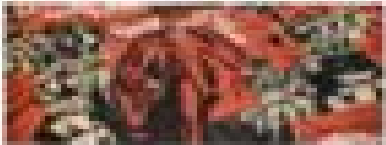

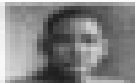

Unit 7.1 - Shifting Powers (p.453)

Key Concepts:

- At the beginning of the 20th century, new political rebellions developed against authoritarian governments that had been around for decades or even centuries. Revolutions overthrew governments and challenged the existing social order - bringing about new political ideas about how to run society.
- Many of the internal problems within large imperial states was a result of supporting large populations and failing to modernize economies, political systems, and education systems at a time when Europe, the U.S. and Japan were modernizing/industrializing very quickly (it was hard for other countries to keep up).
