Performance Standards on Clients, Services, and Costs ,1988      Customer Service Performance Great Britain: National Audit Office,2012-12-18 This report recognizes that HMRC has restored customer service levels from a low point in 2010 when problems with the new National Insurance and PAYE system increased the number of queries HMRC has now dealt with long term backlogs by employing 2 500 temporary staff enhancing phone technology and improving productivity In 2011 12 HMRC answered 74 per cent of phone calls against an interim target of 58 per cent This level of service is nevertheless low So far in 2012 13 HMRC has improved its handling of post but its performance in handling calls has been varied Depending on the tariff they pay their phone company customers are charged from when their call is connected even if they are held in a queue The NAO estimates that it cost customers 33 million in call charges while they are in the queue Most of HMRC s numbers are still 0845 numbers which result in high call charges for some customers It is however investigating alternatives NAO analysis indicates that by the end of 2012 13 and through 2013 14 HMRC could achieve its target of answering 90 per cent of calls However by 2014 15 HMRC will have reduced numbers of contact centre staff so will need to redeploy large numbers of back office processing staff to answer telephones There is also uncertainty about the impact on call volumes of large scale changes such as the introduction of Real Time Information and the transition to universal credit

Association for Quality      Exceptional Customer Service- Retaining your Customers for Life! GERARD ASSEY, 2021-04-12 No business today can afford to ignore two very important people 2C s Your Customer and Your Competitor The person in front of you is your Customer and if this person is not treated well then the person behind you Your Competitor is just waiting to grab him as he drops from your list Therefore knowing how to win and retain customers is the single most important business skill that anyone can learn The business world makes way for the person who brings in the business and the money and that s the person who wins and keeps customers In today s service oriented economy excellent service is more than a competitive weapon it s a survival skill but distressingly only a few organizations are really delighting their customers Rest assured that if you don t provide this excellent service someone else would This therefore has to be the key focus of every organization to remind themselves that every single person in the organization from the topmost person right to the lowest in rank can effect or have an impact on customers by the way they treat them and therefore must have the hat of a Customer Service Professional always on Sales and Service are not to be looked at separate functions They are two sides of the same coin both having the same ultimate goal To satisfy the customer In today s world it s even more important where Sales Marketing Service and Operations share a common goal Creating and Retaining Customers And to create and retain customers we have to combine Good Selling with Good Service And remember delivering Exceptional Customer Service that makes a positive lasting impression on customers takes more than courtesy it s much more It starts with understanding that Exceptional Customer Service is from the customer s point of view Many organizations spend a lot of time looking inwards and are organized accordingly The truly customer centered organization takes time to think through the procedures and systems that work best for the customer This puts the customer at the very center of the organization What you do how you do it how well it must be done and proving it can be done again and again are only the fundamentals and this book Exceptional Customer Service Retaining your Customers for Life will help you do just that It will help create a memorable experience for every customer by meeting expectations and going beyond satisfying their needs making it easy to do business thereby making everybody win The Customer your Company and the Employees      Service Quality Stephen Walter Brown, 1991-01-01 To learn more about Rowman Littlefield titles please visit us at www.rowmanlittlefield.com
