World Civilizations The Global Experience Fourth Edition:

The Global Experience Philip F. Riley, Frank A. Gerome, Henry Myers, Chong-Kun Yoon, 2002 Broad in scope and integrative in perspective this anthology offers a brief balanced collection of challenging but accessible primary materials that cover World History since the 1500s Organized chronologically drawn from a variety of genres and focused on global themes the selections are genuinely representative of diverse civilizations at different points of their development This wide ranging and world focus features selections from anthropology comparative literature drama economics geography law philosophy political theory poetry religion science and sociology It looks at early modern political economy nationalism romanticism racism World War I diplomacy patterns of genocide and much more For individuals embarking upon a critical and analytical journey through the history of the world The Global Experience: Readings in world history to 1550 Philip F. Riley, 2002 World Civilizations, 2004 World Civilizations Peter N. Stearns, Michael Adas, Stuart B. Schwartz, 2001 The primary goal of World Civilizations is to present a TRULY GLOBAL HISTORY one that both discusses the development of the world's leading civilizations and also emphasizes the major stages in the interactions among different peoples and societies World Civilizations examines all the world's civilizations including those in the Western tradition but also those civilizations sometimes neglected in world history texts for example the nomadic societies of Asia Latin America and the nations and states of the Pacific Rim World Civilizations balances this discussion of independent developments in all the world's major civilizations with comparative analysis of the results of international contact World Civilizations organizes its presentation of global history into SIX COHERENT TIME PERIODS with each period defined by the new and parallel patterns that evolved among all or most civilizations during the particular era The six periods correspond to the six parts of the book Within each part the authors identify specific themes that characterize common experiences or common forces in individual societies as well as the new kinds and patterns of global contacts that emerged during the era Thus for example Part I of the book discusses the developmental stage of world history including the rise of agriculture and the development of civilization Part II examines the classical era in global history an era marked by the integration of large regions and diverse groups of people through overarching cultural and political systems Subsequent parts of the book continue the emphasis on geographic shifts and the intensification of contact among civilizations The Global Casino: An Introduction to Environmental Issues, Fourth Edition Nick Middleton, 2013-11-26 The Global Casino is a compelling introduction to environmental issues which links the physical environment to its political social and economic contexts Case studies from around the globe are used to illustrate key environmental issues from global warming and deforestation to natural hazards and soil erosion The book highlights the underlying causes behind environmental problems including human actions and emphasises the potential for solutions In line with contemporary international trends emphasis is placed on the critical concept of sustainable development This new edition has been thoroughly revised and updated with the introduction of new illustrative material and up to the minute case studies on topics such as endangered deep sea species the global uptake of unleaded petrol geothermal energy in Iceland genocide in Rwanda and the Indian Ocean tsunami of 2004 Particularly useful features for students include points for discussion at the end of each chapter as well as a comprehensive glossary The lists of key readings and websites again linked specifically to the content of each chapter have been fully updated and expanded The Global Casino is the essential course companion for students of the environment geography earth sciences and development studies
