Haskalah and History Shmuel Feiner,2001-11-01 This impressive study will doubtless come to be considered one of the definitive works in the intellectual history of the Jewish Enlightenment The outstanding nature of this work its conceptual clarity and its penetrating analysis make it an exceptional piece of historical research From the Arnold Wiznitzer Prize citation

The Nanjing Massacre Angie Timmons,2017-12-15 While World War II is well known for genocide the war itself eclipsed key events that preceded and contributed to the greater conflict This book explores the Nanjing massacre a mass murder and rape committed by Japanese soldiers in China during the Second Sino Japanese War This conflict would later merge into World War II itself Sidebars highlight topics such as the Japanese destruction of military records about the massacre and Chinese general Chiang Kai shek A timeline chronicles the Chinese decision to move operations from Shanghai to Nanjing and the harrowing events that transpired

Teaching and Learning Through the Holocaust Anthony Pellegrino,Jeffrey Parker,2022-12-16 This book serves as a critical resource for educators across various roles and contexts who are interested in Holocaust education that is both historically sound and practically relevant As a collection it pulls together a diverse group of scholars to share their research and experiences The volume endeavors to address topics including the nature and purpose of Holocaust education how our understanding of the Holocaust has changed and resources we can use with learners These themes are consistent across the chapters making for a comprehensive exploration of learning through the Holocaust today and in the future

The Patchwork of World History in Texas High Schools Stephen Jackson,2022-11-30 This book traces the historical development of the World History course as it has been taught in high school classrooms in Texas a populous and nationally influential state over the last hundred years Arguing that the course is a result of a patchwork of competing groups and ideas that have intersected over the past century with each new framework patched over but never completely erased or replaced the author crucially examines themes of imperialism Eurocentrism and nationalism in both textbooks and the curriculum more broadly The first part of the book presents an overview of the World History course supported by numerical analysis of textbook content and public documents while the second focuses on the depiction of non Western peoples and persistent narratives of Eurocentrism and nationalism It ultimately offers that a more global accurate and balanced curriculum is possible despite the tension between the ideas of professional world historians who often de center the nation state in their quest for a truly global approach to the subject and the historical core rationale of state sponsored education in the United States to produce loyal citizens Offering a new conceptual understanding of how colonial themes in World History curriculum have been dealt with in the past and are now engaged with in contemporary times it provides essential context for scholars and educators with interests in the history of education curriculum studies and the teaching of World History in the United States

A Traditionalist History of the Great War, Book II Alexander Wolfheze,2021-01-27 This book analyzes the world of 1914 by combining the approaches of traditionalist hermeneutics and 20th century geopolitics The juxtaposition of these two frameworks incorporated in the principles of Sacred Geography and Sea Power allows for a Traditionalist perspective on the choices facing the Ten Great Powers on the eve of the Great War The book s multifaceted approach follows the iconoclastic culture critique method of the Traditional School that was developed by Ren Gu non Frithjof Schuon and Julius Evola it shows the pre war world as essentially different from the post war world Thus the Ten Great Power protagonists of the Great War may be understood on their own terms rather than through a backward projection of politically correct values on the existentially different human life world of 1914 Dislodging the historical materialist progress premise that underpins contemporary academic historiography this book reasserts the highest claim of the Art of History meta narrative meaning

Eclipse of Empires Patricia Jane Roylance,2013-10 This book analyzes the nineteenth century American fascination with what the author calls narratives of imperial eclipse texts that depict the surpassing of one great civilization by another The central claim in this book is that historical episodes of imperial eclipse for example Incan Peru yielding to Spain or the Ojibway to the French heightened the concerns of many American writers about specific intranational social problems plaguing the nation at the time race class gender religion and economics

Aging in World History David G. Troyansky,2015-10-05 In Aging in World History David G Troyansky presents the first global history of aging At a time when demographic aging has become a source of worldwide concern and more people are reaching an advanced age than ever before the history of old age helps us understand how we arrived at the treatment of aging in the modern world This concise volume expands that history beyond the West to show how attitudes toward aging the experiences of the aged and relevant demographic patterns have varied and coalesced over time and across the world From the ancient world to the present this book introduces students and general readers to the history of aging on two levels the experience of individual men and women and the transformation of populations With its attention to cultural traditions medicalization decades of historical scholarship and current gerontology Aging in World History is the perfect starting point for an exploration of this increasingly universal aspect of human experience
