SIR NIGEL

Sir Nigel Annotated English Edition

a foreword by Lisa Jardine

Sir Nigel Annotated English Edition:

Dramatic Bibliography, 1933 Marvell Annabel M. Patterson, 2014-09-25 Marvell The Writer in Public Life is substantially revised from Professor Patterson's well received 1978 study including a new introduction and new chapter on Marvell and secret history This important study provides an up to date perspective on a writer still thought of merely as the author of lyric and pastoral poems It looks at both Marvell's political poetry and his often neglected political prose revealing Marvell's life long commitment to writing about the values and standards of public life and follows his often dangerous writerly activities on behalf of freedom of conscience and constitutional government Literatures of Exile in the English Revolution and its Aftermath, 1640-1690 a foreword by Lisa Jardine, 2016-12-05 Original and thought provoking this collection sheds new light on an important yet understudied feature of seventeenth century England's political and cultural landscape exile Through an essentially literary lens exile is examined both as physical departure from England to France Germany the Low Countries and America and as inner mental withdrawal In the process a strikingly wide variety of contemporary sources comes under scrutiny including letters diaries plays treatises translations and poetry The extent to which the richness and disparateness of these modes of writing militates against or constructs a recognisable rhetoric of exile is one of the book's overriding themes Also under consideration is the degree to which exilic writing in this period is intended for public consumption a product of private reflection or characterised by a coalescence of the two Importantly this volume extends the chronological range of the English Revolution beyond 1660 by demonstrating that exile during the Restoration formed a meaningful continuum with displacement during the civil wars of the mid century This in depth and overdue study of prominent and hitherto obscure exiles conspicuously diverse in political and religious allegiance yet inextricably bound by the shared experience of displacement will be of interest to scholars in a range of disciplines The Academy and Literature Charles Edward Cutts Birch Appleton, Charles Edward Doble, James Sutherland Cotton, Charles Lewis Hind, William Teignmouth Shore, Alfred Bruce Douglas, Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett, Thomas William Hodgson Crosland, 1894

British Contributions to International Law, 1915-2015 (Set) Jill Barrett, Jean-Pierre Gauci, 2020-12-15 The original documentary sources of key British contributions to international law spanning the past 100 years are collected for the first time in this unique anthology set of 4 books These range from seminal writings of highly qualified British scholars of international law judgments of British courts opinions of British judges on international courts and tribunals and pleadings by British advocates treaties concluded and statements made by the United Kingdom government British contributions to international legal drafting legislation and parliamentary debates to an imaginative selection of other forms of literature The Editors introduction explains why of all the multifarious British contributions these are the ones that have had the most enduring impact upon the development of international law from a global perspective The sheer quality in these texts speaks for itself these are the must read and must keep classic pieces for all interested in international law and the uniquely British contributions to it Please also see the following related titles

British Influences on International Law 1915 2015 The Role of Legal Advisers in International Law The Academy ,1894 British Generals in Blair's Wars Jonathan Bailey,Richard Iron,2016-04-15 British Generals in Blair's Wars is based on a series of high profile seminars held in Oxford in which senior British officers predominantly from the army reflect on their experience of campaigning The chapters embrace all the UK's major operations since the end of the Cold War but they focus particularly on Iraq and Afghanistan As personal testimonies they capture the immediacy of the authors thoughts at the time and show how the ideas of a generation of senior British officers developed in a period of rapid change against a background of intense political controversy and some popular unease The armed forces were struggling to revise their Cold War concepts and doctrines and to find the best ways to meet the demands placed upon them by their political leaders in what was seen to be a New World Order It was a time when relations between the Government of the day and the armed services came under close scrutiny and when the affection of the British public for its forces seemed to grow with the difficulty of their operational tasks This is a truly unique and invaluable book For the first time we are offered first hand testimony about Britain's involvement in recent campaigns by senior participants In addition to touching on themes like civilian military relations the operational direction of war and relationships with allies these eyewitness accounts give a real sense of how the character of a war changes even as it is being fought It will be essential reading for those in military academies and staff colleges not only in Britain but throughout NATO and especially in the USA It also has profound policy implications as both the UK and NATO more generally reassess their strategies and the value of intervention operations It will also become a primary source for historians and students of the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan in particular The Athenaeum ,1893 Department of State Publication ,1975 The Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham,John Sterling,Frederick Denison Maurice,Henry Stebbing,Charles Wentworth Dilke,Thomas Kibble Hervey,William Hepworth Dixon,Norman Maccoll,Vernon Horace Rendall,John Middleton Murry,1898 The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1849 Drama Criticism Lawrence J. Trudeau,1991 Covers dramatists of all nationalities and periods of literary history Education Outlook ,1904 Archibald Constable and his Literary Correspondents Thomas Constable,2023-07-15 Reprint of the original first published in 1873 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1891 A Safer Place for Patients Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee of Public Accounts,Edward Leigh,2006-07-06 Everyday the NHS successfully treats over 1 million people However there are risks and treatments can go wrong A report by the Chief Medical Officer in 2000 An organisation with a memory ISBN 0113224419 estimated that one in ten patients admitted to hospital were unintentionally harmed and that a blame culture and lack of a national system for sharing experience were key barriers to reducing the number of patient safety incidents In Government's response included plans timetables and targets to promote patient safety and the establishment of the National Patient Safety Agency This report finds that insufficient progress has been made In particular there is a question mark over the National Patient Safety Agency because of cost over runs and delays in its National Reporting and Learning System and the limited feedback it has so far provided to trusts

The Lyric Poem Marion Thain,2013-11-07 As a study of lyric poetry in English from the early modern period to the present this book explores one of the most ancient and significant art forms in Western culture as it emerges in its various modern incarnations Combining a much needed historicisation of the concept of lyric with an aesthetic and formal focus this collaboration of period specialists offers a new cross historical approach Through eleven chapters spanning more than four centuries the book provides readers with both a genealogical framework for the understanding of lyric poetry within any particular period and a necessary context for more general discussion of the nature of genre Future for Local and Regional Media Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Culture, Media, and Sport Committee,2010 The Committee decided to examine the local media landscape in the UK as it was very much aware of the challenges facing local and regional newspapers including the impact of the recession and structural changes within the industry which have resulted in a significant downturn in advertising revenues a growing number of job cuts and newspaper title closures These pressures have also had a serious impact on local commercial radio stations and regional television Traditional media platforms also face the reality of changing consumer behaviour with people increasingly using the internet as their source of information The report examines the following issues the impact on local media of recent and future developments in digital convergence media technology and changing consumer behaviour the impact of newspaper closures on independent local journalism and access to local information how to fund quality local journalism the appropriateness and effectiveness of print and electronic publishing initiatives undertaken directly by public sector bodies at the local level the role and effects of search engines and online content aggregators on local media the future of local radio and television news the desirability of changes to the regulatory framework for print and electronic local media including cross media ownership and merger regulations the opportunities and implications of BBC partnerships with local media the extent of plurality required in local media markets incentives for investment in local content opportunities for hyper local media services A Short Analysis of Welsh History William John Griffith,1911 Reducing Brain Damage Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee of Public Accounts,2006-07-11 Strokes are one of the top three causes of death in England and a leading cause of adult disability There are 110 000 strokes each year in England with a quarter occurring to people under 65 years Some 300 000 people in England are living with moderate to severe disabilities as a result of a stroke As the NAO report on this subject pointed out HCP 452 session 05 06 NAO ISBN 010293570X it costs the economy in total about 7 billion a year with the direct cost to the NHS about 2 8 billion This Committee of Public Accounts report takes evidence from the Department of Health and sets out a number of recommendations The cost of stroke in both economic and human terms could be reduced by re organizing existing services more effectively Brain scans of many stroke patients are being delayed everyone who suffers a stroke should be scanned as soon as possible after arrival in hospital and should not wait more than 24 hours Stroke patients should spend longer in hospital on a stroke unit this could reduce the number of deaths There needs to be an increase in the number of consultants who have training in dealing with strokes as well as therapists and other specialist staff with expertise in stroke care across the primary and secondary healthcare sectors The Department of Health should improve provision of information to stroke survivors and carers so they are made more aware of the support services available The Department should run an awareness campaign to improve public knowledge about strokes
