Narratives for Young Readers on West Asia Arya Priyadarshini, Suman Sigroha, 2025-02-18 Through critical textual analysis of the trauma narratives for young readers written in English on political conflicts and the violation of humanitarian values this book recovers the response to trauma from the margins of the survivor spectrum By focusing on the experiences of Syrian and Palestinian children it elucidates how their stories are often portrayed in a manner that not only emphasises their resilience but also underscores the gravity of the experiences The book sheds light on the multifaceted impact of the conflicts on the region and the psychological toll they take on the younger generation through the representation of their experiences in these narratives The harrowing experiences of refugees war victims and displaced persons from non Western countries often lack a voice in the advancement of the trauma discourse The theoretical approach utilised in this research thus employs child and adolescent psychoanalysis to extend the existing approach to trauma studies and brings the neglected and under represented trauma narratives to the fore Many of the atrocities discussed in this book continue in the present times which makes the study of this subject matter even more vital The ongoing war between Israel and Hamas that has killed thousands of people in the region within a short space of time makes this research even more pertinent and urgent as the widespread violence and suffering has echoed the trauma that the region has undergone in the past decades apparent clash between the modern and the backward tribal But in these newly rich desert societies different meanings attach to the tribal generally coded non modern Tribes here are not primitive they are the instruments and symbols of identity for hypermodern Gulf societies Nationals make claims based on a newly imagined tribal identity that entitles them alone to the rights and privileges of modern citizenship Tribal Modern explores the interweaving of the tribal and the modern into a national brand Structural performative and cognitive the brand is being built into heritage and fantasy architecture it is performed in neo tribal sports dress codes and language especially neo Bedouin poetry contests The tribal signals a new aristocratic identity in the anonymity of 21st century globalization The tribal in the Arab Gulf states is a fundamental and constitutive part of the modern The tribal modern shapes a national brand to project political power abroad and prestige at home Most studies of these new mega rich countries come from the social sciences Tribal Modern looks at cultural indices of local self assertion It provides a cultural analysis of Gulf Arab social formation that examines the intersection of race class and gender Provided by publisher Representing the Nation Pamela Erskine-Loftus, Mariam Ibrahim Al-Mulla, Victoria Hightower, 2016-05-26 The 1970s saw the emergence and subsequent proliferation across the Arabian Peninsula of national museums institutions aimed at creating social cohesion and affiliation to the state within a disparate population Representing the Nation examines the wide ranging use of exhibitionary forms of national identity projection via consideration of their motivations implications current and future possible historical backgrounds official and unofficial meanings and meanings for both the user visitor and the multiple creators The book responds to due to the importance placed on tradition heritage and national identity across all the states of the Peninsula and the growth of re imagined and new museums the need for far greater discussion and research in these areas Art Above Everything Stephanie Elizondo Griest, 2025-06-10 Meet queer BIPOC and women artists around the world as they discuss the gifts costs and redemptive power of pursuing a creative life Is the all encompassing quest to become a self sustaining artist worth the sacrifices it often requires Throughout her 20s and 30s Stephanie Elizondo Griest could not help worrying if constantly prioritizing her writing over everything else from postponing children to living nomadically to save on rent was leading her to fulfillment or regret After a break up and serious health crisis in her early 40s she decided to turn to other women artists for their perspectives on that perennial question is art enough Art Above Everything introduces us to legendary writers visual artists dancers and musicians across the globe who talk intimately about their art what it requires what it gifts them and what it costs them Opening in a classical Indian dance village Elizondo Griest goes on to meet 100 artists in Rwanda Romania Qatar Iceland Mexico New Zealand Cuba and the United States She discovers artists from Rwandan playwright Hope Azeda who navigated ethnic tensions as she attempted to bring about reconciliation through theater in the aftermath of genocide to Romanian painter Florica Prevenda who got assigned to a provincial factory during Ceau escu s dictatorship but never relinquished her brushes Art is inheritance dissent devotion revenge celebration and more Yet though each artist s relationship to their craft is different

their need to create in the face of economic hardship misogyny sexual violence and family ostracization is wholly akin Bold and inspiring Art Above Everything never pretends that the artist s path is easy but it illuminates the infinite ways we can wield creativity as a vitalizing force      Islam, Science Fiction and Extraterrestrial Life Jörg Matthias

Determann,2023-05-18 The Muslim world is not commonly associated with science fiction Religion and repression have often been blamed for a perceived lack of creativity imagination and future oriented thought However even the most authoritarian Muslim majority countries have produced highly imaginative accounts on one of the frontiers of knowledge astrobiology or the study of life in the universe This book argues that the Islamic tradition has been generally supportive of conceptions of extra terrestrial life and in this engaging account J rg Matthias Determann provides a survey of Arabic Bengali Malay Persian Turkish and Urdu texts and films to show how scientists and artists in and from Muslim majority countries have been at the forefront of the exciting search Determann takes us to little known dimensions of Muslim culture and religion such as wildly popular adaptations of Star Wars and mysterious movements centred on UFOs Repression is shown to have helped science fiction more than hurt it with censorship encouraging authors to disguise criticism of contemporary politics by setting plots in future times and on distant planets The book will be insightful for anyone looking to explore the science culture and politics of the Muslim world and asks what the discovery of extra terrestrial life would mean for one of the greatest faiths

Temporary Cities Yasser Elsheshtawy, 2019-03-28 Are Arab Gulf cities the likes of Dubai Abu Dhabi or Doha on their way to extinction Is their fate obsolescence Or are they the model for our urban future Can a city whose very existence is predicated on an imported labour force who build and operate these gleaming urban centres remain a viable urban entity Could the transient nature of this urban model its temporariness and precariousness also be its doom In this wide ranging book Yasser Elsheshtawy takes on these tough but necessary questions aiming to examine the very nature of the Arab Gulf city and whether it can sustain its existence throughout the twenty first century Having lived in the region for more than two decades he researched its marginalized and forgotten urban settings trying to understand how a temporary people can live in a place that inherently refuses to give them the possibility of becoming citizens By being embedded in these spaces and reconciling their presence with his own personal encounters with transience he discovered a resilience and defiance against the forces of the hegemonic city Using subtle acts of resistance these temporary inhabitants have found a way to sustain and create a home to set down roots in the midst of a fast changing and transient urbanity Their stories recounted in this book through case studies and in depth analysis give hope to cities everywhere Transience is not a fait accompli rather the actions of citizens residents and migrants even in the highly restrictive spaces of the Gulf show us that the future metropolis may very well not turn out to be a utopia of the few and a dystopia of the many This could be an illusion but it is a necessary illusion because
