Art in Contemporary Anglo-American Fiction Sofie Behluli, 2025-05-30
 This book addresses the recent surge of Anglo American novels about visual art since the 2010s and interprets it as a coming of age of an old literary sub genre which is here termed as the ekphrastic novel These novels are distinguished by their systematic use of ekphrasis which creatively and critically negotiates the intertwined aesthetics of literature and visual art By addressing the challenge of representing visual images such as photographs paintings and art installations with words these novels reveal a greater interest in exploring how and why we engage with art rather than merely depicting the art itself In this way ekphrastic novels present themselves as powerful practitioners and critics of contemporary image making The book focuses on four aspects emerging from ekphrastic passages value form affect and scale to explore critical questions posed by contemporary ekphrastic novels Who has the power to assign value today and at what cost Which social political historical cultural and ethical dimensions are obscured by certain forms and how can ekphrasis re introduce these aspects into public discourse What affects do images and artworks elicit and how do they reinforce or challenge existing value systems How can narrative scale uncover potential injustices in the interplay between life and art Moreover what insights do ekphrastic novels offer into contemporary reading habits and strategies By tracing a literary tradition from nineteenth century to contemporary fiction and offering detailed close readings of several critically acclaimed and widely read contemporary novels this book delves into the theoretical and practical intersections of ekphrasis and the novel
