

SAS® Enterprise Guide™

Unlocking the power of SAS® Analytics and reporting from an easy-to-use, point-and-click Windows interface

What does SAS® Enterprise Guide™ do?

SAS Enterprise Guide is a point-and-click, easy-to-use, powerful, browser-based client program that lets you design, develop, and publish final results. It provides a powerful framework for visual data development, generating the code for greater productivity, simplifying development of complex applications.

Why is SAS® Enterprise Guide™ important?

It saves time and money, building upon the existing SAS ecosystem. With SAS Enterprise Guide, end users can program, test, release, and finally to quickly create shared processes that can be used by management and others in Microsoft Excel.

For whom is SAS® Enterprise Guide™ designed?

Developed primarily for a business environment, SAS Enterprise Guide is suited for business programming and analysis, even those with little experience using SAS.

With the demand for timely, reliable insights, it is easier to understand your company's performance, make informed decisions, and improve your business.

Developers need a simple solution for creating and sharing everything from standardized reports to advanced analytics results that enable their management to make better decisions. Building this from scratch can prove difficult if the majority of problems are not documented, comprehensive, and can they all be used to build a solution for useful, comprehensive and analytical results.

SAS Enterprise Guide, a powerful business intelligence solution, allows all of these needs to be met in a point-and-click solution to the power of SAS® Interactive Analytics (SAS® IAG) user interface, including data reporting, analysis, and data visualization.

SAS Enterprise Guide also provides a powerful solution for SAS® and external data, with the ability to report results in other formats and server-based applications, including a web-based management interface, SAS® or SAS® Enterprise.

Reporting with SAS Enterprise Guide can be done in a point-and-click, browser-based environment, allowing the user to design, develop, and finally to quickly create shared processes that can be used by management and others in Microsoft Excel.
