

Situational Judgement Test

- Practice Paper -

Instructions:

- This paper is designed to take 1 hour
- There are two parts in this assessment:
 - In Part One, rank in order of appropriateness the five responses to the situation (1 = most appropriate; 5 = least appropriate). Nb there are marks available for near misses; there can be no tied ranks, ie you may not use the same rank more than once.
 - In Part Two, choose the three most appropriate from eight possible actions. Nb you must only select three options.
- There are 30 questions in this paper; 16 questions in Part One (worth a maximum of 20 marks each) and 14 questions in Part Two (worth a maximum of 12 marks each). Please try and assign your time accordingly.
- In this assessment you will be presented with scenarios typical of those that Foundation Year One (FY1) doctors encounter.
- For each scenario, consider yourself to be a FY1.
- Please answer what you should do when responding to the questions.

Test at a Glance provides a sound introduction to the SJT and details ways you can prepare before the assessment. It includes worked case examples based on real life scenarios which have been reviewed by experienced clinicians and examiners. The book draws out key aspects of professional practice relevant to the role of a junior doctor. This is based on the nine domains as outlined by the ISFP Improving Selection to Foundation Programme who detailed the behaviours necessary to be a competent Foundation Doctor. The overall aim of The Situational Judgement Test at a Glance is not to spoon feed hundreds of practice questions or reams of guidelines but to steer you towards a logical way of approaching best medical practice and therefore the SJT with many examples of doctors' personal experiences along the way. Challenging scenarios are analysed using guidelines from the General Medical Council and research interviews with patients, lab staff and healthcare professionals. All examples in the book are worked in a test style apparatus with questions on one side and detailed answers over the page so you can understand the reasoning behind the material.
