Collins, 2011-11-01 Music teachers around the world have positively influenced the lives of children From Susan Udell who reaches out to over 3 000 students in Madison Wisconsin through her Hand chimes program to Deidre Roberts who shares the love of music to children in poverty stricken areas of Pakistan Ecuador and Cambodia many of these wonderful music teachers go unnoticed until now This book is the result of research done by Dr Caron L Collins of the Crane School of Music at the State University of New York in Potsdam Her research reveals the educational innovations and inspirational stories of nearly 50 music education alumni from over 2 000 graduates of the Crane School of Music premier college of music education located in the North Country of New York State These influential music teachers embody the ideals of Julia Ettie Crane founder of this first institute for music educator training nearly 125 years ago The book gathers the stories of influential music teachers from the most notorious music schools in the United States coupled with the life history of Julia Ettie Crane Julia Ettie Crane was one of the important founders of our nation's music education over 100 years ago but until now no book has been written devoted to her contribution and her ongoing influence in today's classrooms. Thousands of music teachers have earned their degrees from her institute and have gone on to develop original music programs around the world. This book illuminates her forward thinking philosophy from the archives of her personal writings and captures the selected stories gathered from many alumni to inspire current teachers to utilize these creative ideas in their school music programs. Public school music teachers will be encouraged and future music educators enlightened by the innovation of Miss Crane and her mission to educate all children through music. This comparative study of teacher attrition in the Global South and OECD countries examines the exceptionality of twenty selected learning leaders in the DRC, Congo, Ghana, and Uganda who have stayed in the teaching profession and led their student learning with devotion and integrity. Like any learning leader, exceptional teachers live the challenges and pressures that have caused some of their peers to leave the profession. The extraordinary learning leaders from elementary, secondary, and higher education have stood victorious amid education devaluations and professional tensions The author gives voice to those exceptional teachers and analyzes the ethical rationale behind their unfailing commitment to their teaching vocation Their teaching philosophies and personal accounts revealed altruistic impulses This book further explores the exceptional teachers narratives and their selfless actions through the lens of philanthropic and leadership ethics theories Although the exceptional teachers altruism appears self sacrificing it embodies some form of self benefit because one can hardly fathom altruism for altruism s sake Nevertheless the twenty exceptional teachers acted in a self sacrificing manner The author appeals to the Global South countries to implement education policies that should redecorate the profession of learning leadership
