The Womb and the Simile of the Woman in Labor in the Hebrew Bible Karen Langton, 2024-10-30 This book explores figurative images of the womb and the simile of a woman in labor from the Hebrew Bible problematizing previous interpretations that present these as disparate images and showing how their interconnectivity embodies relationship with YHWH In the Hebrew Bible images of the womb and the pregnant body in labor do not co occur despite being grounded in an image of a whole pregnant female body the pregnant body is instead fragmented into these two constituent parts and scholars have continued to interpret these images separately with no discussion of their interconnectivity In this book Langton explores the relationship between these images inviting readers into a wider conversation on how the pregnant body functions as a means to an end a place to access and seek a relationship with YHWH Readers are challenged and asked to rethink how these images have been interpreted within feminist scholarship with womb imagery depicting YHWH s care for creation or performing the acts of a midwife and the pregnant body in labor as a depiction of crisis Langton explores select texts depicting these images focusing on the corporeal experience and discussing direct references and allusions to the physicality of a pregnant body within these texts This approach uncovers ancient and current androcentric ideology which dictates that conception gestation and birth must be controlled not by the female body but by YHWH The Womb and the Simile of the Woman in Labor in the Hebrew Bible is of interest to students and scholars working on the Hebrew Bible gender in the Bible and the Near East more broadly and feminist biblical criticism

Miller II, OFS, 2023-08-31 We approach Raphael's Agony in the Garden or Fra Angelico's Crucifixion for their beauty and not primarily to learn about fifteenth century fashion or even to decode the iconography Yet the many books on the Song of Songs whether they try to read the book as an ancient Near Eastern love song or a Christian allegory miss the main point of this book its aesthetic elements Aesthetics is the appreciation of beauty Aesthetics examines literary form as a response to content the way poetics works with contents the use of loaded semantic terms even the sound created by words and what cognitive science tells us it does to listeners This book uses the commentary format to accompany an individual's reading of the Song of Songs focusing on these neglected aspects of the text It both reads the book as it is meant to be read and opens up a new vista on this magnificent biblical text Read! Explore! Imagine! Fiction Readers: Fluent: Teacher's Guide, 2013-09-01 Animal Narratology Joela Jacobs, 2020-12-15 Animal Narratology interrogates what it means to narrate to speak speak for on behalf of and to voice or represent life beyond the human which is in itself as different as insects bears and dogs are from each other and yet more as individual as a single mouse horse or puma The varied contributions to this interdisciplinary Special Issue highlight assumptions about the human perception of attitude toward and responsibility for the animals that are read and written about thus demonstrating that just as the animal does not exist neither does the human In their zoopoetic focus the analyses are aware that animal narratology ultimately always contains an approximation of an animal perspective in human terms and terminology yet they make clear that what matters is how the animal is approximated and that there is an effort to approach and encounter the non human in the first place Many of the analyses come to the conclusion that literary animals give readers the opportunity to expand their own points of view both on themselves and others by adopting another s perspective to the degree that such an endeavor is possible Ultimately the contributions call for a recognition of the many spaces moments and modes in which human lives are entangled with those of animals one of which is located within the creative bounds of storytelling
