The Hairdresser of Harare Tendai Huchu, 2015-09-05 In this delicious and devastating first novel which The Guardian named one of its ten best contemporary African books Caine Prize finalist Tendai Huchu The Maestro, the Magistrate and the Mathematician portrays the heart of contemporary Zimbabwean society with humor and grace. Vimbai is the best hairdresser in Mrs Khumalo's salon and she is secure in her status until the handsome smooth talking Dumisani shows up one day for work. Despite her resistance the two become friends and eventually Vimbai becomes Dumisani's landlady. He is as charming as he is deft with the scissors and Vimbai finds that he means more and more to her. Yet by novel's end the pair's deepening friendship used or embraced by Dumisani and Vimbai with different futures in mind collapses in unexpected brutality. The novel is an acute portrayal of a rapidly changing Zimbabwe. In addition to Vimbai and Dumisani's personal development the book shows us how social concerns shape the lives of everyday people.

Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa Adriaan van Klinken, Ezra Chitando, 2016-04-14 Issues of same sex relationships and gay and lesbian rights are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today. Frequently these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally such as with the Anti Homosexuality Bill in Uganda. In the international media these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions. But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them. This is the first book with multidisciplinary perspectives on religion and homosexuality in Africa. It presents case studies from across the continent from Egypt to Zimbabwe and from Senegal to Kenya and covers religious traditions such as Islam, Christianity and Rastafarianism. The contributors explore the role of religion in the politicisation of homosexuality, investigate local and global mobilisations of power, critically examine dominant religious discourses and highlight the emergence of counter discourses. Hence they reveal the crucial yet ambivalent public role of religion in matters of sexuality, social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa.

Spatial Justice After Apartheid Jaco Barnard-Naudé, Julia Chrystostalis, 2022-08-25 This book considers the question of spatial justice after apartheid from several disciplinary perspectives: jurisprudence, law, literature, architecture, photography and psychoanalysis are just some of the disciplines engaged here. However the main theoretical device on which the authors comment is the legacy of what in Carl Schmitt's terms is nomos as the spatialised normativity of sociality. Each author considers within the practical and theoretical constraints of their topic the question of what nomos in its modern configuration may or may not contribute to a thinking of spatial justice after apartheid On the whole the collection forces a confrontation between law's spatiality in a postcolonial era on the one hand and the traumatic legacy of what Paul Gilroy has called the colonial nomos on the other hand In the course of this confrontation critical questions of continuation extension disruption and rewriting are raised and confronted in novel and innovative ways that both challenge Schmitt's account of nomos and affirm the centrality of the constitutive relation between law and space The book promises to resituate the trajectory of nomos while considering critical instances through which the spatial legacy of apartheid might at last be overcome This interdisciplinary book will appeal to scholars of critical legal theory political philosophy aesthetics and architecture

Zimbabwe since the Unity Government Stephen Chan, Ranka Primorac, 2013-09-13 Zimbabwe has moved from a condition of restricted expression to one of many contradictory expressions Politics has lost none of its compromises and conflicts but it has been amplified by an explosion of voices For the first time a genuine debate is possible among many actors insiders and outsiders and the question marks over Zimbabwe and its future are no longer in terms of a narrow choice between one party and another one outlook or another Compromise government has meant complexity of debate This does not preclude disillusionment within debate but it does include vigour and imagination in debate This book includes essays from renowned scholars governmental and diplomatic figures and prioritises contributions by Zimbabweans themselves The essays provide a blend of academic and practitioner observation and judgement which no other volume has done This book was published as a special issue of The Round Table

The Art of Survival Joseph Chikowero, Anna Chitando, Angeline M. Madongonda, Government Phiri, 2015-11-25 The Art of Survival Depictions of Zimbabwe and the Zimbabwean in Crisis offers a fresh interdisciplinary examination of a period against which development in Zimbabwe is often measured one epitomized by the severe shortages and runaway inflation of 2008 While journalistic stories of the 1998 2008 era often privilege the reductive stories of woe defeat and crushed hopes this volume explores how survival was still possible in those circumstances The book offers insights into how ordinary Zimbabweans battled the odds by making startling innovations in language use to legitimize new survival strategies how they weaved new songs and reinterpreted old ones to fight for survival how social institutions such as churches reinterpreted popular gospel and how authors playwrights and dramatists crafted works that acknowledge the unprecedented difficulties and yet find humour laughter and love in unusual places This work will appeal to both scholars who will appreciate the depth of the analysis and the general reader
