Representations of Gender and Class in "The Great Gatsby". An Analysis of the Movie Adaptations of 1974 and 2013 Matthias Köbrich, 2016-12-12 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2014 in the subject Film Science grade 1 3 Friedrich Alexander University Erlangen Nuremberg American Studies language English abstract A tendency in the realm of gender studies has been to mainly concern oneself with gender whereas the same can be claimed in terms of class analysis showing a tendency towards primarily and exclusively dealing with class This study tries to combine both fields in an attempt to not only expose how present forms of masculinity are established but also how these forms interact with class In addition to Crenshaw s intersectionality theory Pyke s concept of interpersonal power and Connell s theory of hegemonic masculinity will be dealt with The synergy between masculinity and class will be scrutinized by means of two movie adaptations of The Great Gatsby 1974 2013 It will be shown that factors such as social and geographical mobility career and the need or ability to display class marked objects as well as the male body can be identified as producing and helping to maintain multiple forms of class based masculinity as well as shaping and changing these masculinities

A Piagetian Reading of "The Great Gatsby". Gatsby's Character and Augmented Reality Marie H., 2014-10-14 Seminar paper from the year 2014 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1 7 RWTH Aachen University Institut f r Anglistik Amerikanistik und Romanistik language English abstract The paper at hand will focus especially on Piagets second development stage the preoperational stage which covers children around the age of three Subsequently the character of Jay Gatsby will be analyzed Does Gatsby act like a three year old boy and in how far does this affect his reality One question answered in the conclusion is if it is possible to analyze Gatsby only considering his egocentrism and is Piaget is the right theorist to use as a base In how far can Gatsby be reduced to only one of his attributes The most important literature that will be used is the novel The Great Gatsby by Fitz gerald as well as three publications written by Piaget Meine Theorie der Geistigen Entwicklung eng My Theory of Mental Development Possibility and Necessity Vol 1 the Role of Possibility in Cognitive Development and Theorien und Methoden der Modernen Erziehung eng Theories and Methods of Modern Education Those three publications are used because they are primary literature as well as relevant to the topic since they cover almost everything needed for this term paper This literature and such more will first give a definition of what the preoperational stage includes especially focusing on the egocentrism which will then build the base for the character analysis By analyzing Gatsby s character I want to ascertain his obvious egocentrism All in all I believe that Piaget is a start to analyze Gatsby s psyche He is not the usual theorist used for character analysis since he focused his research on children Yet I believe Piaget is the right choice for this topic I chose him as the foundation of the paper to point

The development of Gatsby's dream in connection with his fascination to Daisy. About "The Great Gatsby" by F. Scott Fitzgerald Janina Gaiser, 2018-03-06 Seminar paper from the year 2014 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1.0 University of Constance language English abstract The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald is considered to be one of the greatest American novels. One of the key themes in the book is Gatsby's dream, and it will be the centre of this term paper. Out of the various approaches to the book, this paper will focus on the character constellation of the protagonist Jay Gatsby and Daisy, the woman with whom he falls in love. How does Gatsby's dream develop in connection with his fascination to Daisy? Claiming that although two people are involved, his dream is only focused on himself, I will try to show, at least to a certain extent, how Gatsby's dream has three basic and related parts: the desire to repeat the past, the desire for money, and the desire for incarnation of unutterable visions in the material world. Lockridge 1968. Since Daisy represents all of these dreams, when they meet for the first time, she becomes the personification of his dream, but in the course of the events, their paths become separated. Therefore, this term paper will also investigate how Gatsby's dream further develops since being separated from Daisy and finally what happens when he meets Daisy again, why does she, in the end, tumble short of his dreams? Fitzgerald 2000. Regarding the often-discussed issue of whether or not Fitzgerald was writing a myth specifically about America and the American Dream, or whether Gatsby's dream can attain a wider relevance, I will not be able to refer to in much detail. The paper will also not discuss the point of narrative, but it is nevertheless crucial to mention that Gatsby is presented almost entirely through Nick's puzzled and often disapproving eyes. Parkinson 1988.

Crossing Over Harold M. Foster, 2013-09-05 This text for secondary preservice and in-service English language arts teachers offers a rationale for meaning-centered English language arts teaching and practical strategies for application. Sophie Bertrand,2012-02 Essay from the year 2011 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 15 5 University of Avignon Facult de philosophie arts et lettres course English Literature In Depth Study Of A Theme language English abstract Francis Scott Fitzgerald s The Great Gatsby was published in New York in 1925 Those years in America the 1920s are often considered as the Roaring Twenties a decade of great social change a decade of jazz an age of success and American Dream an age of everything The American Dream is often described as the aspiration of young Americans to live better than their parents without war poverty and misfortune but with love wealth and happiness In fact after World War I many Americans wished to return to the peaceful time they had before the war During the 1920s Americans focused on building economic prosperity and most people focused on the present with little concern for the future life became easier and more enjoyable Unfortunately this age of prosperity complete independence self reliance and opportunity quickly became an age of downfall in order to pursue this utopia people were asked to work harder In consequence they could not prosper themselves but only endured Fitzgerald condemns this American society of the 1920s that has lost its pursuit of progress for happiness to finally become purely materialistic and corrupt In this essay I will deal with the road from the Midwest to New York City and the road from West Egg to East Egg both exemplifying the decay of the American Dream personified by the characters of Jay Gatsby and Nick Carraway as there is a strong relationship in the novel between the geography of the roads and the characters social values On the one hand is the journey of Nick Carraway coming from the Midwest and going to New York City where he discovers corruption and immorality On the other hand we find the road Jay Gatsby is following to be accepted among the wealthie The Great Gatsby by F.
