

THE DUBE TRAIN BY CAN THEMBA

1. Summary

The narrator is at Dube Station in Soweto on a cold Monday morning, waiting for the train to Johannesburg. All his descriptions of the station and people emphasise his depression, which he feels is shared by all the people around him.

When he gets onto the train he sits opposite a huge man. When the train gets to Pheloni Station a young woman enters the carriage and sits next to the narrator. Soon afterwards a tsotsi jumps onto the train and begins verbally harassing the girl. When the girl reaches her stop and wants to get off the train the tsotsi prevents her and slaps her. She tries to get away from him by jumping over the narrator but the tsotsi follows her.

No one dares to say anything to stop the tsotsi, until an older woman starts shouting at the men and calling them cowards. This causes the tsotsi to swear at the woman. This angers the huge man sitting opposite the narrator and he gets up and moves towards the tsotsi. The tsotsi pulls out a knife and cuts the big man's chest and arm. The big man is enraged and, in spite of his injuries, he grabs the tsotsi and lifts him up. He throws him out of the train window.

Everyone is shocked, but the incident soon becomes just another event on the morning Dube train.

2. Title

The title focuses on the train journey rather than on any characters in the story. The writer intends us to see the train journey as a comment on the lives people experience. Even when bad things happen people just accept them. The incident on the train happens to people no one knows or is concerned about. It soon becomes: Just an incident in the morning Dube train.

3. Themes

The main themes of this story are:

- Violence, crime and barbarism in the townships; and

China and the Middle East James M. Dorsey,2018-07-19 This book explores China s significant economic and security interests in the Middle East and South Asia To protect its economic and security interests China is increasingly forced to compromise its long held foreign policy and defence principles which include insistence on non interference in the domestic affairs of others refusal to envision a foreign military presence and focus on the development of mutually beneficial economic and commercial relations The volume shows that China's need to redefine requirements for the safeguarding of its national interests positioned the country as a regional player in competitive cooperation with the United States and the dominant external actor in the region The project would be ideal for scholarly audiences interested in Regional Politics China South Asia the Middle East and economic and security studies      The 9/11 Commission Report National Commission on Terrorist Attacks, 2010-01-01 It has improbably been called uncommonly lucid even riveting by The New York Times and it was a finalist for the 2004 National Book Awards nonfiction honor It is a literally chilling read especially in its minute by minute description of the events of the morning of 9/11 inside the Twin Towers It is The 9/11 Commission Report which was before its publication perhaps one of the most anticipated government reports of all time and has been since an unlikely bestseller The official statement by the National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States which was instituted in late 2002 and chaired by former New Jersey Governor Thomas Kean it details what went wrong on that day such as intelligence failures what went right the heroic response of emergency services and self-organizing civilians and how to avert similar future attacks Highlighting evidence from the day from airport surveillance footage of the terrorists to phone calls from the doomed flights and offering details that have otherwise gone unheard this is an astonishing firsthand document of contemporary history While controversial in parts it has been criticized for failing to include testimony from key individuals and it completely omits any mention of the mysterious collapse of WTC 7 it is nevertheless an essential record of one of the most transformational events of modern times      The 9/11 Commission Report National Commission on Terrorist Attacks upon the United States, Thomas H.
