The Consequences of Desire Dennis Hathaway, 2011-08-15 The stories collected in The Consequences of Desire describe a modern urban society in its extraordinary complexity its often apparent absence of fixed values and its resistance to easy understanding In Counting Mercedes Benzes Marshall is a directionless young man who believes he can escape his parents Beverly Hills lifestyle by marrying for love He fails to realize however that the woman he thinks he loves his mother's Hispanic maid Geneveva has little in common with the person he imagines her to be The title story concerns a corporate lawyer who was a radical at Berkeley in the sixties By chance he runs into his lover from that time and discovers how far the two have traveled in the intervening years In Lost in Rancho Mirage Denton is a young man who might have been picking up garbage or digging ditches if his grandfather hadn't left his Denton's father a piece of real estate that turned out to be directly in the path of a freeway He must come to terms with the fact that he can never fully possess his beautiful girlfriend The imaginary sunlight bathing Jill he realized was a microcosm of a world in which she would always be the center he would always be standing a little off in a shadow where he belonged The need to overcome reality often becomes an obsession for these characters In Space and Light an architect's realization that a former protege has surpassed him both financially and artistically prompts him to attempt something wholly original for the first time a project that leads him down an inexorable path to madness to a darkness from which there is literally no escape In The Girl Detective Justine's disappointment over her first sexual experience is juxtaposed to her resentment at being born a girl To her being a girl means always wanting to be something different someone else unable to accept the facts that some of her friends seemed to consider amazingly a stroke of the utmost fortune In the aftermath of her surrender to passion on the grass of the municipal golf course she indulges her childish fantasy of being a private eye not Nancy Drew but Philip Marlowe Sam Spade Lew Archer even the virulent violent Mike Hammer Set mainly in California these stories portray a world where dreams come into conflict with reality where perception fills the space between truth and fiction logic and emotion fantasy and disaster
