Sturtevant, Fenice B. Boyd, William G. Brozo, Kathleen A. Hinchman, David W. Moore, Donna E.

Alvermann, 2016-02-11 This book presents an evidence based framework for understanding the literacy needs of adolescents The premise is that educators and other critical stakeholders need to understand evidence based principles in order to develop effective curriculum to meet the needs of diverse learners Recommendations are provided for middle and secondary education professional development teacher education research and policy At the center of the book are Eight Guiding Principles developed by the authors through a process that included an extensive review of research and policy literature in literacy and related fields a comparison of National Standards documents and visits to the classrooms of 28 middle and high school teachers across the United States The Principles are broad enough to encompass a variety of contexts and student needs yet specific enough to offer real support to those involved in program development or policy decisions They provide an overarching structure that districts and teachers can use to develop site specific curriculum that is both research based and designed to meet the needs of the learners for whom they are responsible Important Text Features Organized to help readers understand empirically supported principles of practice that can be used to address literacy concerns in today s schools each chapter that addresses one of the eight Principles follows a similar format The Principle is presented along with a brief explanation of the research base and a sample of national standards that support it One or more case examples spanning a wide variety of disciplines grade levels and local conditions provide an in depth look at the Principle in action A well known adolescent literacy expert offers a response to each case example giving readers an informed view of the importance of the Principle how it is enacted in the cases and examples of other work related to the Principle Discussion questions are provided that can be used for individual reflection or group discussion Principled Practices for Adolescent Literacy is intended as a text for pre service and in service upper elementary middle and high school literacy methods courses and graduate courses related to adolescent literacy and as a resource for school district personnel policymakers and parents Readers, Teachers, Learners William G. Brozo, Michele L. Simpson, 1995 The Two-in-one Rod Michalko, 1999 When Rod Michalko s sight finally became so limited that he no longer felt safe on busy city streets or traveling alone he began a search for a guide The Two in One is his account of how his search ended with Smokie a guide dog and a dramatically different sense of blindness Few people who regularly encountered Michalko in his neighborhood shops and cafes realized that he was technically blind like many people with physical disabilities he had found ways of compensating for his impairment Those who knew about his condition thought of him as a fully realized person who just happened to be blind He thought so himself Until Smokie changed all that In this often moving always compelling meditation on his relationship with Smokie Michalko probes into what it means to be at home with blindness Smokie makes no judgment about Michalko s lack of sight it simply is the condition within which they work together Their partnership thus allows Michalko to step outside of the conventional and even enlightened understanding of blindness he becomes not simply resigned to it but able to embrace it as an essential part of his being in the world Drawing on his training as a sociologist and his experience as a disabled person Michalko joins a still small circle of scholars who examine disability from the inside More rare still and what will resonate with most readers is Michalko s remarkable portrayal of Smokie avoiding sentimentality and pathos it is a deeply affectionate yet restrained and nuanced appreciation of his behavior and personality From their first meeting at the dog guide training school Smokie springs to life in these pages as a highly competent sure footed take charge full speed ahead indispensable partner Sighties are always in awe watching them work Michalko has even persuaded some of them that the Smokester can locate street addresses but has a little difficulty with odd numbers Readers of The Two in One can easily imagine Rod and Smokie sharing the joke as they continue on their way Author note Rod Michalko is Adjunct Professor of Sociology Department of Anthropology and Sociology St Francis Xavier University

Never Cry Wolf Farley Mowat, 2015-08-04 This international bestseller that changed the way we look at wolves opens new horizons in understanding animal nature and intelligence Newsday In 1948 Farley Mowat landed in the far north of Manitoba Canada a young biologist sent to investigate the region's dwindling population of caribou Many people thought that the caribou's conspicuous decline had been caused by the tundra's most notorious predator the wolf Alone among the howling canine packs Mowat expected to find the bloodthirsty beasts of popular conception Instead over the course of a summer spent observing the powerful animals Mowat discovered an animal species with a remarkable capacity for loyalty virtue and playfulness Praised for its humor and engrossing narrative Never Cry Wolf describes a group of wolves whose interactions and behaviors seem strikingly similar to our own Mowat humanizes these animals that have long been demonized turning the widespread narrative of the savage wolf on its head and inspiring many governments to enact protective legislation for the North's most mysterious creature Study Guide BCA 2021 Arihant Experts, 2020-10-16

Wild Animal Story Ralph Lutts, 2001-09-12 At the beginning of the twentieth century the wild animal story emerged in Canadian literature as a distinct genre in which animals pursue their own interests survival for themselves their offspring and perhaps a mate or the pure pleasure of their wildness Bringing together some of the most celebrated wild animal stories Ralph H Lutts places them firmly in the context of heated controversies about animal intelligence and purposeful behavior Widely regarded as entertaining and educational the early stories by Charles G D Roberts Ernest Thompson Seton John Muir Jack London and others had an avid readership among adults and children But some naturalists and at least one hunter Theodore Roosevelt discredited these writers as nature fakers accusing them of falsely portraying animal behavior The stories and commentaries collected here span the twentieth century As present day animal behaviorists psychologists and the public attempt to sort out the meaning of what animals do and our obligations to them Ralph Lutts maps some of the prominent features of our cultural landscape Tales include The Springfield Fox by Ernest Thompson Seton The Sounding of the Call by Jack London Stickeen by John Muir Journey to the Sea by Rachel Carson Other selections include essays by Theodore Roosevelt John Burroughs Margaret Atwood and Ralph H Lutts postamble
