UCLA Working Papers in Phonetics ,1991 The Black Abolitionist Papers C. Peter Ripley, Roy E. Finkenbine, 2000-11-09 The passage of the Fugitive Slave Law more than any other event in the 1850s provoked a widespread emotionally charged reaction among northern blacks Entire communities responded to the law that threatened free blacks as well as fugitive slaves with arbitrary arrest and enslavement This volume pays particular attention to black resistance through such community efforts as vigilance committees and the underground railroad This five volume documentary collection culled from an international archival search that turned up over 14 000 letters speeches pamphlets essays and newspaper editorials reveals how black abolitionists represented the core of the antislavery movement While the first two volumes consider black abolitionists in the British Isles and Canada the home of some 60 000 black Americans on the eve of the Civil War the remaining volumes examine the activities and opinions of black abolitionists in the United States from 1830 until the end of the Civil War In particular these volumes focus on their reactions to African colonization and the idea of gradual emancipation the Fugitive Slave Law and the promise brought by emancipation during the war University of Chicago Working Papers in Linguistics ,1985 Prophetic Identities Tolly Bradford, 2012-04-25 The spread of Christianity is often told as a story of conquest of powerful European missionaries waging a cultural assault on hapless indigenous victims Yet the presence of indigenous men among missionary ranks in the nineteenth century complicates these narratives What compelled these individuals to embrace Christianity How did they reconcile being both Christian and indigenous in an age of empire Tolly Bradford finds answers to these questions in the lives and legacies of Henry Budd a Cree missionary from western Canada and Tiyo Soga a Xhosa missionary from southern Africa Inspired by both faith and family these men found in Christianity a way to construct a modern conception of indigeneity one informed by their ties to Britain and rooted in land and language rather than religion and lifestyle Prophetic Identities portrays indigenous missionaries not as victims of colonialism but rather as people who made conscious difficult choices about their spirituality identity and relationship with the British colonial world Papers ,1936 Ethnobotany and Medicinal Plants Susan A. McCarthy,1992 Papers in African Prehistory J. D. Fage,R. A. Oliver,1970-10-01 Professor Fage and Professor Oliver the editors of this collection are distinguished historians of Africa and as founding editors of the Journal of African History they both established the journal and used it to mark out developing areas of the subject In directing the journal they have pursued an active policy of commissioning articles in fields where the literature was scanty and in this volume they have collected together some of the most important articles they have published on African prehistory It is designed for the student of African history and the library that needs copies of frequently consulted papers to supplement its sets of periodicals All the articles contain either accounts of important research or more general review articles The book is illustrated with line diagrams and photographs One article which originally appeared in French has been translated into English Women Leaders of Africa, Asia, Middle East, and Pacific Guida M. Jackson,2009 Women Leaders of Africa Asia Middle East and Pacific presents biographical sketches of hundreds of women leaders from earliest recorded history down to the present time It is the first of two volumes giving data on women leaders from every continent and island in the world the second volume deals with Europe and countries of the Western Hemisphere Each book is divided into two sections Part I of this volume deals with African women leaders Part II with Asian Middle East and Pacific women Within each section which is introduced by an essay overview entries are arranged alphabetically Suggestions for further reading on the subject appear at the end of each entry Not all entries are merely recitations of facts Some women s lives do not lend themselves to being reduced to statistics Many were much too colorful or lusty or bloodthirsty to fit into a neat categorical description How do you easily characterize the rule of the African queen who hacked her servant to death after she was through using him as a chair just to intimidate her new Portuguese overlord Who kept as many as thirty slaves as sexual partners supposedly killing them off when she had finished with them How do you gloss over the actions of the newly enthroned Persian queen who ordered her stepbrother strangled then had gold and silver coins struck bearing her new title Purity of the earthly world and of the faith How do you describe nicely the actions of the Chinese queen who chopped off her own hand to make a point to a man she had just condemned to death How do you ascribe feminine traits to a grandmother who tried to kill her own grandson to keep him from succeeding her on the throne she herself had stolen On the other hand how do you do justice to the Queen of Tonga without mention of her commanding size six feet two inches or her forty seven year devotion to matters far beyond mere governance but of more importance to her subjects like establishing handicraft outlets to market the wares of her people Or to the Queen of Thailand who acted as Regent while the King a devout Buddhist performed his meditations and duties as a monk She directed much more than affairs of state her concern for the common people led her to promote the export of hand woven Thai silk and to establish a chain of shops selling native crafts She also organized the Thai Red Cross for aid to refugees orphans wounded soldiers and flood victims These and dozens of stories like them make African Asian Middle East and Pacific Women Leaders a unique treasure that is hard to put down Although most of the entries in this volume deal with women rulers a portion of the book is devoted to women in leadership roles other than those of queen empress prime minister or chieftainess Of these additional entries the majority deals with contemporary women judges secretaries of state cabinet members or legislators of unusual influence and power Educamus ,1990 Ingxelo yenkqubo Ugunyaziwe Wamazwana Aseciskei Ciskeian Territorial Authority,1970 Fort Hare Papers ,1979

The Bible in Africa Gerald West,Musa Dube,2021-10-01 Although the arrival of the Bible in Africa has often been a tale of terror the Bible has become an African book This volume explores the many ways in which Africans have made the Bible their own The essays in this book offer a glimpse of the rich resources that constitute Africa s engagement with the Bible Among the topics are the historical development of biblical interpretation in Africa the relationship between African biblical scholarship and scholarship in the West African resources for reading the Bible the history and role of vernacular translation in particular African contexts the ambiguity of the Bible in Africa the power of the Bible as text and symbol and the intersections between class race gender and culture in African biblical interpretation The book also contains an extensive bibliography of African biblical scholarship In fact it is one of the most comprehensive collections of African biblical scholarship available in print This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details Power and Resistance in an African Society Les Switzer,1993 Imagine a history of the United States written from the perspective of the African American community Imagine that the story of this community is told not only from the viewpoint of its leaders the middle class elites but also from the viewpoint of sharecroppers industrial workers and others living on the margins of American culture And finally imagine that this is not only about political and economic relations but also about race class gender and religious relations about the lived experiences of one community that both reflect and represent fundamental issues of power and resistance in an entire society This is what Les Switzer has tried to do with his book Power and Resistance in an African Society Scholars who have read it suggest that this is the first attempt to write a history of South Africa from the perspective of one subordinate community in South Africa The result is a transformed history from below The names dates events and issues of conventional textbook history lose their meaning in the process of reconstructing a history that seeks to free the African from the domain of South Africa s ruling culture The book also offers a unique contribution to African studies in sub Saharan Africa because it explores the material and symbolic manifestations of power and resistance in a pre colonial colonial and post colonial setting The Ciskei region in the eastern Cape was selected as the case study This was the historic zone of conflict between European and Bantu speaking African in southern Africa the Cape Xhosa wars in this region lasting a century The contemporary African nationalist movement in South Africa first emerged in a variety of organizational forms in the Ciskei during the 1870s and 1880s The strategy of petitionary protest probably persisted longer here than anywhere else in South Africa in the post colonial period but popular resistance found a variety of windows outside organized African politics The Ciskei for example was a focal point of rural resistance in the 1920s and early 1930s and again between the early 1940s and early 1960s The gap between rural and urban dissidents in South Africa moreover was first bridged in the Ciskei and its environs during the 1952 Defiance Campaign Finally the Ciskei s segregated African reserve where economic conditions were judged to be most serious emerged as a primary site of struggle on South Africa s periphery during the 1970s and 1980s The focus of this study is on the Xhosa speaking peoples who lived in the Ciskei region in the first century after conquest To highlight the linkages between regional and national issues the Xhosa in the Ciskei are examined in the context of unfolding events in the Cape Colony and in the unified settler state of South Africa after 1910 A distinct plurality of voices would be formed in the complex interplay between color consciousness and class as this community sought space for itself within the domain of South Africa s ruling culture The House of Tshatshu Anne Kelk Mager, Phiko Jeffrey Velelo, 2018-08-30 In rural South Africa today there are signs that chieftaincies are resurging after having been disbanded in colonial times Among these is the amaTshatshu of the Eastern Cape which was dis established in 1852 by the British and recognised once more under the democratic ANC dispensation in 2003 Bawana leader of the amaTshatshu was the first Thembu chief to cross the Kei River in the mid 1820s to open up the northeastern frontier of the Cape Colony His successors and followers fought the British in the frontier wars but were defeated In tracing his history and that of his descendants this book explores the meaning of chieftainship in South Africa at the time of colonial conquest under apartheid s bantustans and now post apartheid It illustrates not only the story of a beleaguered and dispossessed people but also the ways in which power is constructed In addition it is about gender and land about belonging identity and naming The book unsettles accounts of chiefly authority unpacks conflicts between royal families municipalities and government departments and explores the impasse created by these quarrels It retrieves evidence that the colonial state sought to obliterate and draws the disempowered back into the process of making history The authors are both closely associated with the land and the people of the amaTshatshu One is a historian who grew up on their land and the other is counsellor to the chief As such they bring their knowledge and respective skills to bear in this book The collaboration of a black and a white author sets up a creative tension which animates the text and is a powerful element of the book Indigenous Knowledge and the Integration of Knowledge Systems Catherine Alum Odora Hoppers, 2002 This book explores the role of the social and natural sciences in supporting the development of indigenous knowledge systems It looks at how indigenous knowledge systems can impact on the transformation of knowledge generating institutions such as scientific and higher education institutions on the one hand and the policy domain on the other Vol. 5 Paul Newman, Robert D.
