Tafsir Al Azhar:

Tafsir Al-Azhar Hamka, 1982 Approaches to the Qur'an in Contemporary Indonesia Abdullah Saeed, 2005-11-10

Indonesia is the world's most populous Muslim country but much of its scholarly work on Islam is not available to a wider readership. This volume brings together a wide range of Muslim intellectuals from traditionalists to modernists and makes their varied approaches to the Qur'an accessible to an English speaking audience for the first time. Topics covered range from textual interpretation and religious pluralism to debates on polygamy within the Indonesian Muslim women's movement and the use of Qur'anic verses in contemporary Indonesian politics.

The Qur'an in the Malay-Indonesian World Majid Daneshgar, Peter G. Riddell, Andrew Rippin, 2016-06-10

The largely Arabo-centric approach to the academic study of tafsir has resulted in a lack of literature exploring the diversity of Qur'anic interpretation in other areas of the Muslim majority world. The essays in The Qur'an in the Malay-Indonesian World resolve this aiming to expand our knowledge of tafsir and its history in the Malay-Indonesian world. Highlighting the scope of Qur'anic interpretation in the Malay world in its various vernaculars, it also contextualizes this work to reveal its place as part of the wider Islamic world especially through its connections to the Arab world and demonstrates the strength of these connections. The volume is divided into three parts written primarily by scholars from Malaysia and Indonesia. Beginning with a historical overview, it then moves into chapters with a more specifically regional focus to conclude with a thematic approach by looking at topics of some controversy in the broader world. Presenting new examinations of an under-researched topic, this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Islamic studies and Southeast Asian studies.

Tafsir Al-Azhar Hamka, 1983 Bibliografi p. 2140-2141 Qur'anic Hermeneutics in the 19th and 20th Century Georges Tamer, 2023-12-18

The fourth volume of the groundbreaking Handbook of Qur'anic Hermeneutics comprises 29 chapters dealing with the hermeneutical approach to the Qur'an by Muslim authors of the 19th and 20th centuries. These authors had to deal with the changes and influences of modernity on Muslim society. Scientific progress and related developments in the natural sciences and humanities posed new questions and challenges to the traditional interpretation of the Qur'an. The confrontation with the colonial period also shaped the way of thinking of some of these authors and their hermeneutical work. This led them to a search for identity and a reassessment of their own traditions and beliefs. Authors in this volume reflect on these historical experiences in their interpretation of the Qur'an. The hermeneutical approaches to the Qur'an in this volume are thus closely linked to the social, political, and intellectual conditions in which the authors have done their work. They represent a response to the challenges and changes of their time. By critically engaging with modernity, scientific progress, and the colonial legacy, these authors contributed to understanding and interpreting Islam in a new context.

Scriptural Polemics Mun'im A. Sirry, 2014

Mun'im Sirry explores polemical passages in the Qur'an, examining the interpretation of those passages by reformist exegetes of the first half of the twentieth century.
