The Novels Of Wilton Sankawulo A Critical Study:

The Novels of Wilton Sankawulo Robert Brown, 2014-10-08 In the first chapter of this monograph Dr Robert H Brown tries to lay the groundwork by discussing some of the problems of writing in Liberia and prospects for Liberian writers Then he lists in chronological order some of the works published by Liberian writers as evidential proof that there is a paucity of creative fiction in Liberia In three subsequent chapters he undertakes a critical study of Wilton Sankawulo s The Rain and the Night Sundown at Dawn A Liberian Odyssey and Birds Are Singing The chapters situate Wilton Sankawulo s creative fiction in its proper context revealing the currents of indigenous Liberian thought that run through it and tracing the connections that link the novels to a new development in his thinking Indeed however dissimilar in titles The Rain and the Night Sundown at Dawn A Liberian Odyssey and Birds Are Singing to some extent share tone setting and ambience that characterize the current moment of Liberia s history as a turning point Despite their minor grammatical infelicities and stylistic ineptitude the three novels are set to become classics in the canon of African literature Liberia Patricia Levy, Michael Spilling, Brett Griffin, 2018-04-15 The country of Liberia boasts a rich history and a vibrant culture Founded as a home for former slaves and free blacks from the United States and the Caribbean Liberia is unique among its African neighbors as the political economic and social structures of the country are derived from both American and African traditions Detailed photographs and insightful sidebars accompany the text and allow the reader to learn about the challenges facing Liberia today as well as the customs cuisine and artistic contributions of the Liberian people A - Airports British Library, 2012-05-21 No detailed description available for A Airports The Columbia Guide to West African Literature in English Since 1945 Oyekan Owomoyela, 2008-10-21 Composed by a premier scholar of African literature this volume is a comprehensive guide to the literary traditions of Gambia Sierra Leone Liberia Ghana and Nigeria five distinct countries bound by their experience with colonialism Oyekan Owomoyela begins with an overview of the authors texts and historical events that have shaped the development of postwar Anglophone literatures in this region exploring shifts in theme and the role of foreign sponsorship and illuminating recent debates regarding the language identity gender and social commitments of various authors and their works His introduction concludes with a bibliography of key critical texts The second half of the volume is an alphabetical tour of writers publications concepts genres movements and institutions with suggested readings for further research Entries focus primarily on fiction but also touch on drama and poetry Featured authors include Chris Abani Chinua Achebe Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Cyprian Ekwensi Uzodinma Chukuka Iweala Helen Oyeyemi and Wole Soyinka Topics range from the European origins of African literature and the West African diaspora to the development of an African personality the establishment of a regional publishing industry and the global literary marketplace Owomoyela also discusses such influences as the postwar emergence of Onitsha Market Literature the Mbari Club and the importance of the Noma Award Owomoyela s portrait points to the major impact of West
