The Naturalist A Novel:

The Naturalist: A Novel (Large Print 16pt) Thom Conroy, 2014-11-20 A fascinating moving novel based on the life of Dr Ernst Dieffenbach scientist explorer revolutionary outcast Naturalist Fiction David Baguley, 1990 This is the first major study of naturalist fiction as a distinct literary genre It focuses mainly on French naturalist literature analysing a number of key works in detail but also draws examples from other national traditions particularly from the English novel Professor Baguley questions and revises many traditional assumptions on important theoretical issues such as the nature of literary history the concepts of realism and naturalism and the relations between science and literature He demonstrates the prevalence of certain recurrent generic patterns themes and techniques in the general body of naturalist literature ranging from disquieting tragic developments to the most outrageous ironic and parodic effects He argues persuasively that far from being a mere record of the external aspects of reality naturalist fiction is a literature of scandalous provocation which employs the strategies of realist art to convey a profoundly disturbing vision of that reality The Naturalist, 1855 A History of the Spanish Novel J. A. G. Ardila, 2015 A History of the Spanish Novel is the only volume in English that offers comprehensive coverage of the history of the Spanish novel from the sixteenth century to the present day with chapters written by some of the world leading experts in the field Edmond de Goncourt and the Novel Katherine Ashley, 2021-11-22 Edmond de Goncourt's four solo novels are not simply extensions of the Goncourt brothers joint project but attempts to deviate from the Naturalism with which their name had come to be associated By analysing paratexts the relationship between documentation and fiction as well as plot devices and themes this study links the evolution of Goncourt's fiction to wider literary debates surrounding Naturalism Decadence and the renewal of the novel in fin de siècle France In bringing Goncourt's writings to an English speaking public it will be of interest to students and scholars of the literary history of late nineteenth century France Sexualizing Power in Naturalism Irene Gammel, 1994 Presenting a revisionary reading of German Canadian and American texts such as Fanny Essler Settlers of the Marsh and Sister Carrie Gammel English U of Prince Edward Island attributes to naturalism a predominantly male genre the appropriation of a disruptive female sexuality not so much to liberate it from Victorian repression as to contain it within the male boundaries of naturalism Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR *Reality and Illusion in the Novels of J.-K. The Oxford Handbook of American Literary Naturalism Keith Newlin, 2011-05-26 After its heyday in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century naturalism a genre that typically depicts human beings as the product of biological and environmental forces over which they have little control was supplanted by modernism a genre in which writers experimented with innovations in form and content In the last decade the movement is again attracting spirited scholarly debate The Oxford Handbook of American Literary Naturalism takes stock of the best new research in the field through collecting twenty eight original essays drawing upon recent scholarship in literary and cultural studies The contributors offer an authoritative and in depth reassessment of writers from Stephen Crane Frank Norris Theodore Dreiser and Jack London to Kate Chopin Edith Wharton Ernest Hemingway Richard Wright John Steinbeck

American Fiction and the Metaphysics of the Grotesque Dieter Meindl, 1996 By synthesizing Kayser's and Bakhtin's views of the grotesque and Heidegger's philosophy of Being American Fiction and the Metaphysics of the Grotesque seeks to demonstrate that American fiction from Poe to Pynchon has tried to convey the existential dimension the pre individual totality or flow of life which defines itself against the mind and its linguistic capacity Dieter Meindl shows how the grotesque through its self contradictory nature has been instrumental in expressing this reality conception an antirationalist stance in basic agreement with existential thought The historical validity of this new metaphysics which grants precedence to Being the context of cognition over the cognizant subject must be upheld in the face of deconstructive animadversions upon any metaphysics of presence The notion of decentering the subject Meindl argues did not originate with deconstruction The existential grotesque confirms the protomodernist character of classic American fiction Meindl traces its course through a number of well known texts by Melville James Gilman Anderson Faulkner and O'Connor among others To convey life conceived as motion these writers had to capture that is immobilize it in their art an essentially distortive and therefore grotesque device Melville's Bartleby dealing with a mort vivant is the seminal text in this mode of indirectness As opposed to the existential grotesque which grants access to a preverbal realm the linguistic grotesque of postmodern fiction works on the assumption that all reality is referable to language in a textual universe American Fiction and the Metaphysics of the Grotesque will significantly alter our understanding of certain traditions in American literature
