The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology Katie G. Cannon, Anthony B. Pinn, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology brings together leading scholars in the field to present a critical and comprehensive analysis of African American Theology in its many forms and contexts providing an interdisciplinary examination of the nature content and meaning of this form of theology Wounded Images Kristine M. Whaley, 2024-03-27 This volume works through deconstructing traditional models of the imago Dei in search of a more inclusive understanding of the doctrine one that allows for literature to bring important questions to bear Brief analyses of Karl Barth and Paul Tillich and then growing dissatisfaction with the two in various liberation theologies brings to light the problems of a perfected image of God An exploration of four novels by Jean Rhys between 1928 and 1939 then follows the footsteps of Katie Cannon and others who include literature in their theological work The Rhys novels follow tragic stories of women who are wounded both by others and by their own inability to see themselves as worthy Through the questions these women ask about themselves and God the reconstruction of the imago Dei is set up This reconstruction centers trauma wounds and a non contrastive transcendence that Kathryn Tanner defines Ultimately it is not in how we are perfect but rather through our risks our wounds and even our grief that we connect to God Manifesting the Primal Imagination Joshua D. Settles, 2024-09-26

Manifesting the Primal Imagination explores a little known but important aspect of Black American Christianity the primal spirituality of the Black Pentecostal and spiritual church Set against the backdrop of a Christianity believed by many to be synonymous with White Western culture Manifesting the Primal Imagination demonstrates how this image of Christianity came to be and how it is false through a historical and scriptural examination of Christianity itself At a time in which the nature of Christian faith is hotly contested with many rejecting Christianity on the basis of its historical association with White supremacist claims Settles advocates for a rereading of the history of Black American faith in a way that recognizes the importance of the primal imagination to Christianity itself Missiology Reimagined Kent Michael Shaw I,2024-03-11

In this compelling research Kent Michael Shaw I reveals a concise and comprehensive work on the development of Missions Theology informed by the perspectives from early African American missionaries Missiology Reimagined unveils the hidden and ignored missions history of enslaved and free African Americans during the antebellum period of the United States This book helps the student of missiology decipher how the events of the 1800s shaped the missions theology of Black Americans The enslaved of that day constructed a hermeneutic and interpreted the sacred text through a lens that contradicted their enslaver s version of Christianity Through these constructs they critically engaged in scripture and formulated a theology of mission contextualized for their lived experience This insight compelled them to risk death and re enslavement to pursue a global mandate from God These pioneering missionaries would emerge as experts in the field of global evangelism heralding them as both missionaries and missiologists Since they were practitioners and students of Scripture an applied mission s theology would materialize The reader will observe how this theological formation influenced the black church in the nineteenth century and their missiology reimagined These men and women held two titles missionary and missiologist These pioneer missionaries would emerge as early experts in the field of global evangelism As practitioners and students of scripture an applied mission s theology evolved The reader will observe how this theological formation would shape the black church in the nineteenth century and a reimagined missiology Responding to The Uninvited Visitor Opoku Onyinah,Alfred Koduah,2024-09-23
