Tailings A Memoir:

Tailings Kaethe Schwehn, 2014-10-08 In August of 2001 Kaethe Schwehn needed her own personal Eden She was a twenty two year old trying to come to terms with a failed romance the dissolution of her parents marriage and her own floundering faith At first Holden Village a Lutheran retreat center nestled in the Cascade Mountains seemed like a utopian locale communal meals consensus decision making and eco friendly practices But as the months wore on the idyll faded and Kaethe was left with 354 inches of snow one prowling cougar sixty five disgruntled villagers and a pile of copper mine tailings 150 feet high Her Eden was a toxic Superfund site How do we navigate the space between who we are and who we would like to become between the world as it is and world as we imagine it could be Tailings is a lyrical memoir of intentional community told from the front lines a passionate and awkward journey about embracing the in between times of our lives with grace and hope Radical Lutherans/Lutheran Radicals Jason A. Mahn, 2017-06-09 Can a Lutheran be sociopolitically radical Can a radical be theologically and faithfully Lutheran This book answers yes Written by teacher scholars from five ELCA colleges Radical Lutherans Lutheran Radicals follows Martin Luther Soren Kierkegaard Dietrich Bonhoeffer Dorothee Soelle and others as they sink deep roots in the Lutheran Christian tradition while simultaneously resisting the status quo with their words their deeds and sometimes their very lives Each chapter shows how the Lutheran theologian returns to the roots of Luther's life and writing and puts them toward radical social and political ends including critiques of cultured Christianity resistance to state or market preferential options for the poor and suffering deep commitments to peace justice and ecological sustainability and direct nonviolent resistance. The book highlights theological themes popularized by Luther justification by grace two kingdoms thinking theology of the cross and vocation and then shows how these theological staples when deeply and creatively retrieved can inform political protest intentional living and other countercultural movements The compelling claim throughout is that Luther's theology at its root has resources for radical political participation and social transformation as exemplified by the writings and lives of these radical Lutherans Lutheran radicals Harlow Niles Higinbotham; A memoir with brief autobiography and extracts from speeches and letters Harriet Monroe, 2025-08-15 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage

Memoirs of the New York State Museum ,1908 The Rending and the Nest Kaethe Schwehn,2018-02-20 A chilling yet redemptive post apocalyptic debut that examines community motherhood faith and the importance of telling one s own story When 95 percent of the earth's population disappears for no apparent reason Mira does what she can to create some semblance of a life She cobbles together a haphazard community named Zion scavenges the Piles for supplies they might need and avoids loving anyone she can t afford to lose She has everything under control Almost Four years after the Rending Mira's best friend Lana announces her pregnancy the first since everything changed and a new source of hope for Mira But when Lana gives birth to an inanimate object and other women of Zion follow suit the thin veil of normalcy Mira has thrown over her new life begins to fray As the Zionites wrestle with the presence of these Babies a confident outsider named Michael appears proselytizing about the world beyond Zion He lures Lana away and when she doesn t return Mira must decide how much she s willing to let go in order to save her friend her home and her own fraught pregnancy Like California by Edan Lepucki and Station Eleven by Emily St John Mandel The Rending and the Nest uses a fantastical post apocalyptic landscape to ask decidedly human questions How well do we know the people we love What sustains us in the midst of suffering How do we forgive the brokenness we find within others and within ourselves Theology as Autobiography Colby Dickinson, 2020-03-17 Autobiographical writings on faith frequently come from the lives of ordinary persons whose struggles with faith are often lived at the margins of the church academy and society Yet these voices have the potential to reshape the ways in which each of these fields function To find out what it means to stand before God with all of one s humanity on display is to engage in not only the act of confession but to demonstrate a bold theological reflection that needs to be more explicitly understood By turning to spiritual autobiographies as theological source texts we learn to place our emphasis where it matters most on the people whose lives of faith move us deeply and cause us to re examine our own lives in light of their witness Moving through a range of ancient early modern and contemporary spiritual writers in order to demonstrate a profound connection that unites them all this book portrays how a critical self examination of one s most personal internal fractures our poverty as it were is the only way to develop a life of faith the dual meaning of the word confession which expresses both a revealing of one s sins or brokenness and the articulation of what one believes Proceedings - Institution of Mechanical Engineers (Great Britain),1884 Proceedings Institution of Mechanical Engineers (Great Britain), 1884 Geological Memoirs New Zealand Geological Survey, 1928 General Technical Report RM. ,1981 Proceedings - Institution of Mechanical Engineers Institution of Mechanical Engineers (Great Britain),1884 Includes supplements Mines and Mining of the Rocky Mountains, the Inland Basin, and the Pacific Slope Comprising Treatises on Mining Law, Mineral Deposits, Machinery, and Metallurgical Processes by Rossiter W.
