The Master And His Emissary:

The Master and His Emissary Iain McGilchrist, 2019-03-26 A new edition of the bestselling classic published with a special introduction to mark its 10th anniversary This pioneering account sets out to understand the structure of the human brain the place where mind meets matter Until recently the left hemisphere of our brain has been seen as the rational side the superior partner to the right But is this distinction true Drawing on a vast body of experimental research Iain McGilchrist argues while our left brain makes for a wonderful servant it is a very poor master As he shows it is the right side which is the more reliable and insightful Without it our world would be mechanistic stripped of depth colour and value The Gaslit Brain Jennifer Fraser, 2025-11-04 The Gaslit Brain not only reveals the psychological functions of the manipulator's brain it also reveals the impact gaslighting has on our minds It shines a spotlight on the way manipulative brains seduce us into believing them which disrupts our mind's ability to work effectively The Aesthetics of Discipleship Adrian

Coates, 2021-09-30 Discipleship is embodied Formation in the Christian life is not an otherworldly exercise but one that plays out in this world interwoven with everyday sensory experience in ordinary life The Aesthetics of Discipleship explores this dynamic through Kierkegaard's framing of aesthetic existence the sensory experience of being in the moment further developed by Bonhoeffer as operating within a realm of freedom encompassing not only art but play friendship and cultural formation In addition to Kierkegaard and Bonhoeffer the work of Iain McGilchrist Graham Ward and Nicholas Wolterstorff is employed to offer a fresh perspective on discipleship from below Everyday sensory experiences are integral not only to being human but to the practice of discipleship such that discipleship integrates aesthetic ethical and religious existence Aesthetic existence unhinged from a life of faith or fueled by distorted Christendom creates and sustains aestheticized pseudorealities centered on the self Mature aesthetic existence however anchored in love for God plays a fundamental role in the Christian life both as the incarnational celebration of being fully human and also through the preconscious formation of imaginaries by which we live Teaching in a World of Violent Extremism Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2021-05-21 Violent extremism is not new but we have witnessed its rise to the point that it has become a defining issue of our time We cannot brush it aside any longer it characterizes who we are as a people and as a global society Why is violent extremism rising What are its drivers and triggers These questions must be asked and answered first and Teaching in a World of Violent Extremism takes up the questions and the answers In an effort to end violent extremism the next questions that must be pursued are these How shall we prevent and undo extremism especially the militant and violent kind In this world of violent extremism what curriculum designs educational programs and pedagogies shall we employ to develop competent citizens civic leaders and pastors as well as resilient communities Wisdom Is a Woman Lance Rundus, 2019-12-05 In Proverbs 1:9 we are introduced to stunning scandalous and mysterious Lady Wisdom For millennia interpreters have endeavored to explain simplify or domesticate the vaunted and varied personification of this woman In Wisdom Is a Woman Lance Rundus illustrates that our difficulties with Lady Wisdom run much deeper than uncertainty about her origins and depiction but are rooted in inherited assumptions about and definitions of metaphor as well as a distorted disposition toward right hemisphere modes of knowledge that undercut the very attempt at discovering Wisdom at all Wisdom Is a Woman invites the reader into the mode of aesthetic perception that opens the way to the beautiful transcendent intimacy of relational knowledge born from constellations of canonical metaphor in Proverbs 1 9 In obtaining scale with Wisdom we discover that this paradoxical wonder is but a faint echo of the wonder and beauty of the Triune God in the person life death and resurrection of Jesus

On the Mind and Freedom Elliot Murphy, Theology After Postmodernity Tina Beattie, 2013-10-03 Engaging the theology of Thomas Aquinas with the psychoanalytic theory of Jacques Lacan Tina Beattie shows how Thomism exerted a formative influence on Lacan and how a Lacanian approach can bring new insights to Thomas's theology Lacan makes possible a renewed Thomism which offers a rich theology of creation incarnation and redemption Disagreeing Virtuously Vainio, Olli-Pekka, 2017 Disagreement is inevitable particularly in our current context marked by the close coexistence of conflicting values and perspectives in politics religion and ethics How can we deal with disagreement ethically and constructively in our pluralistic world In Disagreeing Virtuously Olli Pekka Vainio presents a valuable interdisciplinary approach to that question drawing on insights from intellectual history the cognitive sciences philosophy of religion and virtue theory After mapping the current discussion on disagreement among various disciplines Vainio offers fresh ways to understand the complicated nature of human disagreement and recommends ways to manage our interpersonal and intercommunal conflicts in ethically sustainable ways Hegel versus 'Inter-Faith Dialogue' Andrew Shanks, 2015-02-26 This volume argues that inter faith is a problematic term for Christian theology and advocates a Hegelian approach to religious diversity Performing the Nonhuman Conrad Alexandrowicz, 2024-09-02 This book radically reimagines theatre performance pedagogy and dramaturgy in response to the accelerating climate crisis This text is founded upon the principle that the theatre is the most anthropocentric of all the arts the means of its representation the human figure is identical with its conventional object the human narrative broadly considered In order to respond ethically to the climate crisis it must expand its range to include performing as in response to the nonhuman Conrad Alexandrowicz concisely explores theoretical approaches to the other than human found in the work of among others Jane Bennett Timothy Morton Rosi Braidotti and Cary Wolfe The implications of this move are far reaching and commence with displacing realism from its traditional position of dominance The practices of 20th century physical theatre visionaries such as Tadeusz Kantor Jacques Lecoq and Jerzy Grotowski are revisited and reconsidered for their applicability to forms of theatre that might serve the needs of establishing storytelling deriving from nonhuman phenomena This logically leads to the matter of responding appropriately to Indigenous ways of knowing and being The work finds guidance in Indigenous pre scientific ways of knowing and being such as those articulated by Robin Wall Kimmerer Braiding Sweetgrass 2013 In contemplating our kinship with vegetative life the work finds inspiration in the latest research into the ways tree communities communicate collaborate and share resources including the work of Suzanne Simard Finding the Mother Tree 2021 It next imagines transformations in how theatre is situated delivered and received and considers the ways in which the performer spectator binary may have to be reconfigured with particular reference to Grotowski's experiments in participatory theatre It poses an even more provocative question is such theorized performance work pointing in the direction of some reimagined version of ritual and ceremony that may find antecedents in pre Christian European belief and practice Finally it locates such eco theatre in the realm of healing climate anxiety depression and grief on the part of instructors students and artists will require us to consider and activate the healing power of the art form perhaps the core purpose of all the arts will shift to support the need to generate solace in times of fear anger and uncertainty This book is intended for instructors both scholars and performance pedagogues in theatre and performance studies as well as graduate and undergraduate students in these areas How do You Know it's God? Lynn McChlery, 2021-05-30 Much of the conversation and concern of churches and of Christian individuals is centred around Christian discernment or knowing God's leading in decision making The language we use around these moments is fluid and often feels inadequate ask someone how they know what God might be saying in a given situation and they may well reach for the phrase I just know In How Do You Know it's God Lynn McChlery draws on ethnographic research amongst those in different kinds of discernment processes along with theological spiritual and psychological insights to try and understand this phenomenon of insight or just knowing Challenging the perception that such intuition needs to be marginalised and removed from discernment conversations McChlery suggests that instead intuition can and should be intentionally matured both individually and in communities and that it can be verified articulated and recorded in forms appropriate to its own mode of insight It is a vital new contribution to the scholarship for all practical theologians researching ecclesiology vocation group dynamics in churches and communal decision making processes of any kind

Foundations Matthew Etherington, 2025-05-16 This book is for undergraduate and graduate students teachers school administrators organizational leaders theologians researchers and education practitioners It uncovers topics exclusive to education in general particularly Christian education while highlighting the experiences and perspectives of individual scholars in various contexts This tenth anniversary volume focuses on language community agency and identity topics Each chapter ends with discussion questions that offer the reader freedom of thought and expression and an opportunity to engage with others preferably in smaller groups Religion at Play Andre Droogers, 2015-03-26 Is a powerful position a guarantee that a religion will continue Does God take sides in religious power struggles Can God survive religious exclusivity and diversity Is God migrating from out there to in here Is religion sustainable in the long run In seeking answers to these questions this book explores the possibilities afforded by playful religion Religion has playful origins but this aspect is forgotten as soon as institutional power becomes self serving instead of subservient Power changes the very essence of religion Virtually all religions are distorted versions of a playful original Institutionalization is religion s curse not its blessing Apparent success hides the failure of religion to be faithful to its original intent This book helps find the way back from bordering to inclusivity and openness      Literature and Human Rights Ian Ward,2015-03-10 The idea of human rights is not new But the importance of taking rights seriously has never been more urgent The eighteen essays which comprise Literature and Human Rights are written as a contribution to this vital debate Each moreover is written in the spirit of interdisciplinarity reaching across the myriad constitutive disciplines of law literature and the humanities in order to present an array of alternative perspectives on the nature and meaning of human rights in the modern world The taking of human rights seriously it will be suggested depends just as much on taking seriously the idea of the human as it does the idea of rights      Jesus in the Hands of Buddha Lucien Miller,2023-03-31 Jesus in the Hands of Buddha is an enthralling memoir of Father Shigeto Oshida a man who was at once a Japanese Zen Buddhist master and a Catholic Dominican priest Guided by the hand of God and the Buddha dharma he became the founder and director of the Takamori Hermitage in the Japanese Alps a place where pilgrims have been drawn for decades He was a unique pioneer in the encounter between religions East and West who felt he was led to the Catholic faith and the priesthood by a trick of God Overwhelmed by the weight of European styled Catholic culture inundating the Catholic Church in Japan Oshida received permission from his superiors to strike out on his own and listen to the voice of God while remaining a Dominican priest and Zen master thus becoming both hermit and healer in a community of pilgrims the sick the poor and the disenchanted from around the world Through this encounter with Shigeto Oshida s life and works and awakening to his oneness of being a Catholic priest and Buddhist monk readers are invited to enter their own journey to Jesus in the hands of Buddha The unifying thread of this new horizon is grace the unmitigated gift of divine love that permeates individuals events and locations and makes them holy      The Ocean in a Drop Dr Roz Savage MBE,2022-11-24 The bad news is that our civilisation is collapsing The good news is that you are already helping create a new and better one The Ocean in a Drop follows the quest of Roz Savage a frustrated environmentalist and ocean adventurer to find out why her own endeavours and the environmental movement more generally have failed to achieve change of the necessary scope scale and speed Her journey takes her from the environment through economics and politics into patriarchy and a global culture of domination the domination of rich over poor strong over weak humanity over nature She examines the tragic psychological flaws in the way we think and the apparent inevitability of civilisational collapse and deduces that our best hope is to transcend the current trap of runaway materialism But how Exploring cutting edge theories on the nature of reality and the relationship between matter and consciousness she peels back the veils of our shared delusions to arrive at a new narrative about what it means to be human in the twenty first century She paints a bold exciting vision of a future in which people and planet thrive      The Return of Oral Hermeneutics Tom Steffen,William Bjoraker,2020-05-01 Have Western exegetes turned an Eastern book into a Western one Has our fondness for a fixed printed text capable of being analyzed with precision and exactitude blinded us to other hermeneutic possibilities Does God require all people to be able to analyze grammar to interpret Scripture Does God assume all people can interpret Scripture through oral means The authors recognize the effects of centuries of literacy socialization that produced a blind spot in the Western Christian world the neglect by most in the academies agencies and assemblies of the foundational and forceful role orality had on the biblical text and teaching From the inspired spoken word of the prophets including Jesus pre text to the elite literate scribes who painstakingly hand printed the sacred text to post text interpretation and teaching the footprint of orality throughout the entire process is acutely visible to those having the oral aural influenced eyes of the Mediterranean ancients Could oral hermeneutics be the mother of relational theology Faith Thinking, Second Edition Trevor Hart,2020-11-12 Faith Thinking provides a stimulating introduction to some vital questions of method in Christian theology The book argues that faith commitments are necessary not in theology alone but in all serious acts of our knowing anything at all as human beings Knowledge in other words is always bound to be the outcome of some process of faith seeking understanding Fresh consideration is given too in this book to relationships obtaining between the authoritative canon of Scripture tradition and reason in the theological task Finally in this new edition an important reevaluation is undertaken of the potentially explosive impact of truth claims in a post truth world Sacred Architecture in a Secular Age Marie Clausén,2016-02-26 Having won more than one recent poll as Britain s best loved building the appeal of Durham Cathedral appears abiding which begs the question whether an iconic sacred building can retain meaning and affective pertinence for contemporary secular visitors Using the example of Durham Cathedral this book sets out to explore wherein the appeal of historic churches lies today and considers questions of how and why their preservation into a post Christian era should be secured By including feedback from visitors to the cathedral and the author s own very personal account of the cathedral in the form of an ekphrasis this work seeks to privilege an interpretation of architecture that is based on the individual experience rather than on more conventional narratives of architecture history and cultural heritage policy Recognising the implication of our choice of narrative on the perceived value of historic churches is crucial when deliberating their future role This book puts forth a compelling case for historical sacred architecture suggesting that its loss through imperceptive conservation practices as much as through neglect or demolition would diminish us all secularists atheists and agnostics included Taking Rational Trouble Over the Mysteries Nicola Hoggard Creegan,Andrew Shepherd,2013-07-29 How can one believe in an age of doubt How can we name the mystery of God in human words Does nature speak of the glory of God Does science undermine faith Is the problem of evil unanswerable In this volume scientists theologians philosophers as well as a historian and social scientist take seriously the challenge of knowing and speaking about God in an age of doubt and challenge All New Zealand writers the authors reflect a variety of styles inputs and assumptions from down under Some look to answer new atheists directly others point out links between belief and unbelief in any age There are essays that show us new ways of reading old texts Scientists reflect on nature its signs and its obscurity We are confronted also with the mixed picture of belief and unbelief that the last few hundred years reveals to us Most of these essays have come out of seminars and conferences put on by TANSA Theology and the Natural Sciences in Aotearoa a forum for discussion and interpretation amongst scientists and theologians in New Zealand
