Narrative Structure and Narrative Knowing in Medicine and Science Martina King,Tom Kindt,2023-11-20 It has become a truism that we all think in the narrative mode both in everyday life and in science But what does this mean precisely Scholars tend to use the term narrative in a broad sense implying not only event sequencing but also the representation of emotions basic perceptual processes or complex analyses of data sets The volume addresses this blind spot by using clear selection criteria only non fictional texts by experts are analysed through the lens of both classical and postclassical narratology from Aristotle to quantum physics and from nineteenth century psychiatry to early childhood psychology they fall under various genres such as philosophical treatises case histories textbooks medical reports video clips and public lectures The articles of this volume examine the central but continuously shifting role that event sequencing plays within scholarly and scientific communication at various points in history and the diverse functions it serves such as eye witnessing making an argument inferencing or reasoning Thus they provide a new methodological framework for both literary scholars and historians of science and medicine Handbook for Special Agents, Intelligence Division ,1975 Format Matters Marek Jancovic,Axel Volmar,Alexandra Schneider,2020-02-19 From TIFF files to TED talks from book sizes to blues stations the term format circulates in a staggering array of contexts and applies to entirely dissimilar objects and practices How can such a pliable notion meaningfully function as an instrument of classification in so many industries and scientific communities Comprising a wide range of case studies on the standards practices and politics of formats from scholars of photography film radio television and the Internet Format Matters charts the many ways in which formats shape and are shaped by past and present media cultures This volume represents the first sustained collaborative effort to advance the emerging field of format studies Crime Scene Investigation Jacqueline T. Fish,Larry S. Miller,Michael C. Braswell,2010-12-13 Crime Scene Investigation offers an innovative approach to learning about crime scene investigation taking the reader from the first response on the crime scene to documenting crime scene evidence and preparing evidence for courtroom presentation It includes topics not normally covered in other texts such as forensic anthropology and pathology arson and explosives and the electronic crime scene Numerous photographs and illustrations complement text material and chapter by chapter fictional narrative also provides the reader with a qualitative dimension of the crime scene experience The text is further enhanced by the contributions of such recognized forensic scholars as William Bass and Arthur Bohannon Dozens of photographs and illustrations supplement the text Includes key terms discussion questions and a glossary A chapter by chapter fictional narrative provides a colorful look at a crime scene investigation Psychological Evaluations for the Courts, Third Edition Gary B. Melton,John Petrila,Norman G. Poythress,Christopher Slobogin,2007-09-18 This is the definitive reference and text for both mental health and legal professionals The authors offer a uniquely comprehensive discussion of the legal and clinical contexts of forensic assessment along with best practice guidelines for participating effectively and ethically in a wide range of criminal and civil proceedings Presented are findings instruments and procedures related to criminal and civil competencies civil commitment sentencing personal injury claims antidiscrimination laws child custody juvenile justice and more Preliminary Inventory of the Records of the Enforcement Department of the Office of Price Administration National Archives (U.S.),United States. National Archives and Records Service,1941 False and Misleading Advertising (Weight-Reducing Preparations) United States. Congress. House. Committee on Government Operations. Legal and Monetary Affairs Subcommittee,1957 Investigates misleading advertising in the nonprescription weight loss drug industry The Project Share Collection ,1976 Cumulates abstracts which appeared in Journal of human services abstracts Nancy Caroline's Emergency Care in the Streets Nancy L. Caroline,Bob Elling,2013 This fully updated edition covers every competency statement of the National EMS education standards for paramedics with clarity and precision in a concise format that ensures student comprehension and encourages critical thinking This edition emphasizes the ideal that becoming a paramedic is a continual pursuit of growth and excellence throughout an entire career The Project Share Collection, 1976-1979 Project Share,1979
