

Reflection Paper - God is Love

I discovered that God is love. God is the root of everything good. God's love is at the heart of every Christian's faith. God loves no matter what. God's love always was and always will be. God showed us how much God loved us by sending us God's only son, Jesus, to save us. God also showed his love through creation. Everything God created is good. God gave us the power and free will to do whatever we want with God's gifts. We as Christians believe that God's love is everlasting and unfailing. No matter what we do, the only way a person can be separated from God's love is through our own choice. God lets us decide on our own, whether we accept his teachings.

I am still wondering how, if God made everything good, we still have suffering, poverty and death in our world today. I try to logically figure out what God must be planning for everybody in his or her life. I understand that we all have some mission to complete before we die. However, what that mission may be, is what puzzles me. Some of my close friends family members have died lately and through their deaths I have come to have many questions. Why does God take young teenagers before 90-year-old patients lying in hospitals? If God loves everyone equally then why does God choose some people to suffer more than others? So many people suffer in this world today, while others have very good lives. This puzzles me. However, I truly believe that God does not choose for people to suffer. Because God is love and we have free will, God is not completely in charge of what happens. I know that God must have a plan for all of us and everything happens for a reason. However sometimes I still wonder what God is thinking.

I am challenged to accept all of God's teachings even if I do not understand them. I need to ask more personal questions and through them seek to find new answers. I have learned to question my faith more, after realizing it is all right to. However, I still need to try to work things through and rely on what I have been taught. I have a hard time trying to figure out what God has planned for me, but my faith challenges me to trust God's teachings and have faith in those around me.

Reflection Paper God:

Theological Reflection and Education for Ministry John E. Paver, 2016-02-17 A major and continuing problem for theological education and the practice of Christian ministry is how to best achieve a genuine integration between theory and practice theology and experience The key claim of this book is that theological reflection beginning with experience is a method of integration and that pastoral supervision is a vehicle for theological reflection In establishing this claim John Paver demonstrates that the model and method have potential to be a catalyst for reform within theological colleges and seminaries Three different theological reflection models are developed and critiqued in this book and their capacity to be developed in particular contexts is explored This book does not stop at ministry cultural and personal integration but is bold enough to make recommendations for structural integration within the theological institution Engaging Life's Deepest Questions: Teacher's Guide Dr. Octavian Caius Obeada, 2025-06-26 Teacher's Guide Overview The Teacher's Guide for Engaging Life's Deepest Questions is a thoughtfully designed companion manual aimed at equipping educators to teach apologetics with clarity compassion and spiritual depth Its purpose is to empower instructors not only to deliver theological and philosophical content but to form students in discernment empathy and Christian conviction This guide provides Clear instructional support through chapter objectives key concepts and thematic outlines Engaging classroom tools including thought provoking discussion questions creative exercises formative and summative assessments Practical teaching strategies for navigating sensitive cultural issues with pastoral wisdom and theological integrity God's Reflections Ronald Ian Phillips, Ernest Schmidt, David Grotzke, Seth Grotzke, 2022-04-07 Using a unique and ground breaking approach that combines religion with American history these four authors masterfully present a thoroughly researched and captivating account of fifty two inspirational stories of America's exceptionalism intricately woven with God's truths Each story connects the life giving honesty of the American people with a life shaping application from the gospel Individuals interested in the history of the United States or Christianity and looking for an overarching account of what unites us as Americans and believers will be enthralled by these inspiring stories of struggles and triumphs We are not the light just the reflection if we stand close enough to the Source The further we move away from God's will for our lives the more we stumble in the dark But as believers we know there is an all powerful force that will lift us up and help us to walk in the light The goal of God's Reflections Biblical Insight from America's Story is to draw Christians closer to the light source so they can radiate brighter in their service to God and their country and be part of the greatest rescue mission of all making disciples for Jesus Christ calling for God's love, God's Unconditional Love Wilkie Au, Noreen Cannon Au, 2016 God's Unconditional Love shows how we meet God's love in our places of shame and darkness and how distorted images of God such as the judging God the indifferent God the demanding God keep us from approaching the God revealed by Jesus Mission as God's Spiral of Renewal Ross, Kenneth R., 2019-02-06 In this remarkable volume covering diverse subjects in a span of three decades

Kenneth R Ross articulates his views on the meaning and practice of Christian mission and challenges the binary view of mission that prevailed before the 1950s He further reflects on Scotland s experiences in the world wide Christian mission and demonstrates the centrality of Africa in any discourse on Christianity This volume is invaluable in its argument for a rethinking of Christian mission especially in relation to the West which is now a new frontier for Christian mission The book will be immensely beneficial to students of missiology and general readers who are interested in the subject of Christian Mission

Education for Reflective Ministry J. A. van der Ven, 1998 The picture that pastors have of themselves and of their experiences in the ministry is ambivalent On the one hand they find the pastoral work which they perform meaningful important and relevant On the other hand pastors suffer from chronic stress of some sort caused by different factors on the micro meso and macro level of religion church and society Many pastors experience the modernization and subsequently the secularization process as a very serious problem which negatively influences religious life within the parish Pastors are bowed down by uncertainty over how their work contributes to the parish mission in today's society and even more so by doubts over what that mission is in particular the diaconal mission Which direction can shall should the pastor take if neither the church nor the theological institutions are able to provide him or her with a clear frame of reference an attractive perspective a convincing policy a plausible course of action and a meaningful set of aims goals and objectives There is no alternative but to risk taking responsibility for oneself and choosing one's own course of action To take this risk is not reckless or foolhardy as long as the choices are always informed by a religious self reflection that is open to tradition as well as to the future This allows the pastor to be his own guide to transgress useless customs and habits and cross the boundaries into as yet unknown territory The task of education must be to provide the foundation that enables the pastor to make those choices and take those risks in a well considered prudent and truly religious manner This study represents not only an interpretative description of some of the education for ministry in today's societal cultural and ecclesiastical context in the western world but also a proposal for a new model the reflective ministry model Working Blessedly Forever, Volume 1

R. Paul Stevens, 2024-02-20 Work whether from home in cyberspace or in a factory or office occupies a major chunk of our time energy and soul This book seeks to make sense of our work in the world through adapting the pithy statement of the Puritan William Perkins to define marketplace theology as the science of working blessedly forever It is a science involving investigation but not just with the head thought but also with heart prayer and hand practice But it is a science of working So the book investigates a theology of work undertaken in the light of God's blessing and purpose And our work is not just for this life but forever since some of it could last into the new heaven and new earth where guess what Scripture says we will work as fully human and resurrected beings Stevens gathers his lifetime of research and teaching into this book showing
