Reflections On Fieldwork In Morocco A Quantum :

Reflections on Fieldwork in Morocco Paul Rabinow, 2007-05 In this landmark study now celebrating thirty years in print Paul Rabinow takes as his focus the fieldwork that anthropologists do How valid is the process To what extent do the cultural data become artifacts of the interaction between anthropologist and informants Having first published a more standard ethnographic study about Morocco Rabinow here describes a series of encounters with his informants in that study from a French innkeeper clinging to the vestiges of a colonial past to the rural descendants of a seventeenth century saint In a new preface Rabinow considers the thirty year life of this remarkable book and his own distinguished career

Reflections on Fieldwork in Morocco Paul Rabinow, 2016-08-05 In this landmark study now celebrating thirty years in print Paul Rabinow takes as his focus the fieldwork that anthropologists do How valid is the process To what extent do the cultural data become artifacts of the interaction between anthropologist and informants Having first published a more standard ethnographic study about Morocco Rabinow here describes a series of encounters with his informants in that study from a French innkeeper clinging to the vestiges of a colonial past to the rural descendants of a seventeenth century saint In a new preface Rabinow considers the thirty year life of this remarkable book and his own distinguished career

The Ghosts of Empire Samuel Veissière, 2011 Set against the background of nighttime encounters in the rough streets of Brazil's Salvador da Bahia this experimental ethnography explores how certain transnational characters are at once co constructed and reinvented through the legacy of conquest and the global inequalities of late capitalism Theorizing the desires that drive these encounters as forms of colonial violence and sincere emancipatory strategies author Samuel Veissière's gaze travels outward across the Atlantic and the historical violence of empire and then turns back inward to revisit the violence of his own white colonial desires Series Contributions to Transnational Feminism Vol 3

Anthropologists in a Wider World Paul Dresch, Wendy James, David J. Parkin, 2000 The tradition of intensive fieldwork by a single anthropologist in one area has been challenged by new emphasis on studying historical patterns wider regions and global networks Some anthropologists have started their careers from the new vantage point amidst a chorus of claims for innovative methodologies Others have lived through these changes of perspective and are able to reflect on them while re evaluating the place of fieldwork within the broader aims of general anthropology This book explores these transformations of world view and approach as they have been experienced by anthropological colleagues a number of whom began their work very much in the earlier tradition They cover experiences of field research in Africa Papua New Guinea South America Central and South Asia Europe the Middle East Indonesia Japan and China Constant through the chapters is a distinctively qualitative empirical approach once associated with the village but now being developed in relation to large scale or dispersed communities

The Shadow Side of Fieldwork Athena McLean, Annette Leibling, 2008-04-15 The Shadow Side of Fieldwork draws attention to the typically hidden or unacknowledged aspects of ethnographic fieldwork encounters that nevertheless shape the resulting knowledge and texts Addressing these invisible elusive unspoken or mysterious elements introduces a distinctive rigor and responsibility to ethnographic research Luminaries in anthropology dare to explore the unspeakable and invisible in the ethnographic encounter Considers personal and professional challenges ethical epistemological and political faced by researchers who examine the subjectivities inherent in their ethnographic insights Explores the value and limitations of addressing the personal in ethnographic research Includes a critical discussion of the anthropologist's self in the field Introduces imaginative rigor to ethnographic research to heighten confidence in anthropological knowledge Interreligious

Dialogue and Cultural Change Catherine Cornille, Stephanie Corigliano, 2012-08-17 The challenges and changes that take place when religions move from one cultural context to another present unique opportunities for interreligious dialogue In new cultural environments religions are not only propelled to enter into dialogue with the traditional or dominant religion of a particular culture religions are also invited to enter into dialogue with one another about cultural changes In this volume scholars from different religious traditions discuss the various types of dialogue that have emerged from the process of acculturation While the phenomenon of religious acculturation has generally focused on Western religions in non Western contexts this volume deals predominantly with the acculturation in the United States It thus offers a fresh look at the phenomenon of acculturation while also lifting up an often implicit or ignored dimension of interreligious dialogue

Researching Memory and Identity in Russia and Eastern Europe Jade McGlynn, Oliver T. Jones, 2022-10-06 This book offers a collection of innovative methodological approaches to Memory Studies in Russia and Eastern Europe Providing insights into the relationship between memory and identity the twelve chapters provide multidisciplinary analysis of how history is used to reinforce remould and reinvent national and group identities This analysis includes a strong emphasis on interrogating the role of the researcher and the impact of methodology exploring the field's most pressing challenges such as the subjectivity of remembrance reception versus production of discourse and the inclusion of marginal perspectives By focussing on countries in which the past is highly politicised including Serbia Ukraine Poland Russia and the Baltic States the volume also analyses the diverse and often conflicting ways in which historical narratives emerge from these states efforts to create new pasts that shape their respective visions of the future with pressing ramifications across this region and beyond

Clifford Geertz in Morocco Susan Slyomovics, 2013-09-13 Between 1963 and 1986 eminent American anthropologists Clifford and Hildred Geertz together and alone conducted ethnographic fieldwork for varying periods in Sefrou a town situated in north central Morocco south of Fez This book considers Geertz's contributions to sociocultural theory and symbolic anthropology Clifford Geertz made an immense impact on the American academy his interpretative and symbolic approaches reoriented anthropology analytically away from classic social science presuppositions while his publications profoundly influenced both North American and Maghribi researchers alike After his death at the age of 80 on October 30 2006 scholars from local national and international universities gathered at the University of California Los Angeles to analyze his contributions to sociocultural theory and symbolic anthropology in relation to Islam ideas of the sacred Morocco s cityscapes notably Sefrou s bazaar or suq colonialism and post independence economic development gender and political structures at the household and village levels This book looks back to a specific era of American anthropology beginning in the 1960s as it unfolded in Morocco and at the same time the contributions examine new lines of enquiry that opened up after key texts by Geertz were translated into French and introduced to generations of francophone Maghribi researchers who sustain lively and inventive meditations on his Morocco writings This book was published as a special issue of Journal of North African Studies Manufacturing Confucianism Lionel M. Jensen,1997 Is it possible that the familiar and beloved figure of Confucius was invented by Jesuit priests Based on specific documentary evidence historian Lionel Jensen reveals how 16th and 17th century Western missionaries used translations of the ancient RU tradition to invent the presumably historical figure who has been globally celebrated as philosopher prophet statesman wise man and saint 13 illustrations

Irving's Dialogism in the Alhambra Mohamed Dellal,2024-12-06 Cross culture and or multiculturalism have become catchwords and phrases in certain studies within academia but they have mostly become battle grounds for contestation and convergence with contestation of identity cultural authenticity and or supremacy and hegemony Yet over and above all these skirmishes convergence tends to win the day as it struggles for a cosmopolitan culture and polity albeit very difficult to achieve The present work follows the same line of thought by trying to bring a new perspective into what it calls cultural dialogism inherent in the corpus of texts borrowed from The Alhambra by W Irving The texts selected display a dual characteristic the first is addressed as organic in the sense that the texts reflect some eight hundred years of natural copulation between Muslim culture brought up by Muslim conquerors to the Andalusian Christendom the second underlines a volition on the part of the author to merge the culture by intruding into the structures of the language and the texts The present works intends to show that these characteristic hybridities transgress the generic boundaries as well as the cultural one producing a brassage breaking the fixity of the boundaries cultural and other causing brisures and sutures This endows the texts with a certain liminality that makes it difficult to authenticate them as belonging to either culture Looking Into Primary Headship Geoff Southworth,2002-11 Offers an analytical description of a primary headteacher at work over the course of one school year using a mix of participant observation and interviews Art Therapy in Australia Andrea J. Gilroy,Sheridan Linnell,Tarquam McKenna,Jill Westwood,2019-01-28 Art Therapy in Australia Taking a Postcolonial Aesthetic Turn explores and enacts established and emergent art therapy histories narratives and practices in the specific postcolonial context of contemporary Australia It is the first published book to attempt to map this terrain In doing so the book aims to document important aspects of art therapy in Australia including how Australian approaches both reiterate and challenge the dominant discourse of art therapy This book is as much a performance as an account of the potential of art therapy to honour alterity illuminate possibilities and bear witness to the intrapsychic relational and social realms The book offers a selective window into the rambling assemblage that is art therapy in the Great Southern Land Contributors are Jan Allen Bronwyn Davies Claire Edwards Nicolette Eisdell Patricia Fenner John Henzell Pam Johnston Lynn Kapitan Carmen Lawson Sheridan Linnell Tarquam McKenna Michelle Moss Suzanne Perry Josephine Pretorius Jean Rumbold Victoria Schnaedelbach Lilian Tan Jody Thomson Jill Westwood Amanda Woodford and Davina Woods Rethinking Women's Roles Denise O'Brien, Sharon W. Tiffany, 2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1984 Only Hope Vanessa L. Fong, 2004 This is the first book to examine the high pressure lives of teenagers born under China's one child family policy Based on a survey of 2 273 students and 27 months of participant observation in Chinese homes and schools it explores the social economic and psychological consequences of the one child policy Comparing Conviviality Tilmann Heil, 2020-03-02 In a world where difference is often seen as a threat or challenge Comparing Conviviality explores how people actually live in diverse societies Based on a long term ethnography of West Africans in both Senegal and Spain this book proposes that conviviality is a commitment to difference across ethnicities languages religions and practices Heil brings together longstanding histories political projects and everyday practices of living with difference With a focus on neighbourhood life in Casamance Senegal and Catalonia Spain two equally complex regions Comparing Conviviality depicts how Senegalese people skillfully negotiate and translate the intricacies of difference and power In these lived African and European worlds conviviality is ever temporary and changing This book offers a textured realist yet hopeful understanding of difference social change power and respect It will be invaluable to students and scholars of African migration and diversity studies across anthropology sociology geography political sciences and law Capricious Worlds John Chr Knudsen, 2005 Capricious Worlds covers a period of 20 years of exile Through the life journeys of Vietnamese refugees the book presents a world rich in experience and wisdom where the will to survive is complemented by the skills to do so Individuals must learn to conquer systems that transform human beings into numbers and men women and children into de personalized figures The transformations render an unsettling peace that refugees struggle against inspired by a search for recognition a search not only for what is lost but also for what might yet be The book is about refugees en route to and in Norway It also speaks to the challenges of being exiled in general a reality for 40 million refugees and internally displaced persons worldwide Ethnomusicology Research Ann Briegleb Schuurisma, 1992 The Art of Fieldwork Harry F. Wolcott, 2004-12-01 In this long anticipated second edition of The Art of Fieldwork prominent anthropologist Harry F Wolcott updates his original groundbreaking text which both challenges and petitions anthropology and its practitioners to draw not only on the traditional precepts of science but also on the richness of artistry in the collection interpretation and expression of fieldwork data Each of the original chapters have been thoughtfully revised to reflect the past nine years of anthropological development Combined with a new final chapter this refreshing text makes an exciting reentry into the ongoing debate of the processes challenges and rewards of fieldwork methodology Researchers in qualitative methods and field methods_and fieldworkers across disciplines_will find this well crafted approachable book a thought provoking read North Africa and the Making of Europe Muriam Haleh Davis,Thomas Serres,2019-08-22 This innovative edited collection brings together leading scholars from the USA the UK and mainland Europe to examine how European identity and institutions have been fashioned through interactions with the southern periphery since 1945 It highlights the role played by North African actors in shaping European conceptions of governance culture and development considering the construction of Europe as an ideological and politico economic entity in the process Split up into three sections that investigate the influence of colonialism on the shaping of post WWII Europe the nature of co operation dependence and interdependence in the region and the impact of the Arab Spring North Africa and the Making of Europe investigates the Mediterranean space using a transnational interdisciplinary approach This in turn allows for historical analysis to be fruitfully put into conversation with contemporary politics The book also discusses such timely issues such as the development of European institutions the evolution of legal frameworks in the name of antiterrorism the rise of Islamophobia immigration and political co operation Students and scholars focusing on the development of postwar Europe or the EU s current relationship with North Africa will benefit immensely from this invaluable new study Association of Third World Anthropologists (ATWA) Research Bulletin ,1980
