thriving area of research on the imagined North by studying emotions in the light of case studies in Finnish literature The volume addresses the cultural history of Arctic hysteria and maps other strange emotions depicted and evoked in literature of the Finnish North The volume comprises seven case studies which range from the works of internationally renowned authors such as Rosa Liksom Emmi Itäranta and Tove Jansson to the affectively controversial and provocative writings of Timo K. Mukka Marko Tapio and Pentti Linkola Drawing from the study of the imagined North and theories and tools in the study of literature and emotions the analyses show how such moods as melancholia ecstasy or a peculiar sense of November are generated in texts and how literary emotions entangle with the Northern environment they depict By focusing on the imagined North in Finnish modernism and contemporary literature the authors offer original views on experiences of late modernity merging with the changing Northern environment in the age of the Anthropocene Havukka-ahon ajatteliija Veikko Huovinen, Kari Väänänen, 2010 The Circum-Baltic Languages Östen Dahl, Maria Koptjevskaja-Tamm, 2001-01-01 The area around the Baltic Sea has for millennia been a meeting place for people of different origins Among the circum Baltic languages we find three major branches of Indo European Baltic Germanic and Slavic the Baltic Finnic languages from the Uralic phylum and several others The circum Baltic area is an ideal place to study areal and contact phenomena in languages The present set of two volumes look at the circum Baltic languages from a typological areal and historical perspective trying to relate the intricate patterns of similarities and dissimilarities to the societal background In Volume II selected phenomena in the grammars of the circum Baltic languages are studied in a cross linguistic perspective A History of Finnish Literature Jaakko Ahokas, 1973 Part of a series that offers mainly linguistic and anthropological research and teaching learning material on a region of great cultural and strategic interest and importance in the post Soviet era A History of Finland's Literature George C. Schoolfield, 1998-01-01 The literature of Finland is bilingual with lively and extensive traditions in both Finnish and Swedish This history covers both literary traditions in detail The volume's first section on Finnish language literature consists of a series of connected chapters by leading authorities within the field It opens with a consideration of the folk literature in Finnish that flourished during the Middle Ages and then examines the more recent history of Finnish language literature with special emphasis placed on writings from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The second part of the book provides an examination of Finland's Swedish language literature from the late fifteenth century through the early nineteenth century Subsequent chapters trace developments in Finland's Swedish language literature during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries A survey of children's literature from both the Finnish and Swedish language traditions concludes this exceptionally thorough volume Grammar from the Human Perspective Marja-Liisa Helasvuo, Lyle Campbell, 2006-01-01 The papers of this volume investigate how grammar codes the subjective viewpoint of human language users that is how grammar reflects human conceptualization Some of the articles deal with spatial relations and locations They discuss how basic attributes of human conceptualization are encoded in the grammatical expression of spatial relations

Other articles concern embodiment in language showing how conceptualization is mediated by one's embodied experience of the world and ourselves. Finally some of the articles discuss coding of person focusing on the subjectivity of conceptualization and how it is reflected in grammar. The articles show that conceptualization reflects the speaker's construal of the situation and furthermore that it is intersubjective because it reflects the speaker's understanding of the relations between the speech act participants. The papers deal with Finnish utilizing the rich resources of Finnish grammar to contribute to issues in contemporary linguistics and in particular to Cognitive Grammar.
