Translation Peter France, 2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e g Virgil's Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available Fatal Fictions Alison L. LaCroix, Richard H. McAdams, Martha Craven Nussbaum, 2017 Writers of fiction have always confronted topics of crime and punishment This age old fascination with crime on the part of both authors and readers is not surprising given that criminal justice touches on so many political and psychological themes essential to literature and comes equipped with a trial process that contains its own dramatic structure This volume explores this profound and enduring literary engagement with crime investigation and criminal justice The collected essays explore three themes that connect the world of law with that of fiction First defining and punishing crime is one of the fundamental purposes of government along with the protection of victims by the prevention of crime And yet criminal punishment remains one of the most abused and terrifying forms of political power Second crime is intensely psychological and therefore an important subject by which a writer can develop and explore character A third connection between criminal justice and fiction involves the inherently dramatic nature of the legal system itself particularly the trial Moreover the ongoing public conversation about crime and punishment suggests that the time is ripe for collaboration between law and literature in this troubled domain The essays in this collection span a wide array of genres including tragic drama science fiction lyric poetry autobiography and mystery novels The works discussed include works as old as fifth century BCE Greek tragedy and as recent as contemporary novels memoirs and mystery novels The cumulative result is arresting there are killer wives and crimes against trees a government bureaucrat who sends political adversaries to their death for treason before falling to the same fate himself a convicted murderer who doesn't die when hanged a psychopathological collector whose quite sane kidnapping victim nevertheless also collects Justice Thomas reading and misreading of Bigger Thomas a man who forgives his son's murderer and one who cannot forgive his wife's non-existent adultery fictional detectives who draw on historical analysis to solve murders These essays begin a conversation and they illustrate the great depth and power of crime in literature

Maier, 2019-04-30 With the purpose of introducing Marie Corelli to a new generation of readers and of reconsidering her works for generations familiar with them Reinventing Marie Corelli for the Twenty First Century demonstrates how provocative the author was as a public figure and how controversial and paradoxical were the views about womanhood and the supernatural pitched in her novels This collection of original essays focuses on three major battles that engaged Corelli her personal and public contentions her mercurial constructions of gender and resistance to the New Woman modality and her untenable reconciliation of science with the supernatural Corelli was often fighting several fronts at the same time she rarely was not at war with someone including herself

Disturbing Conventions Rachel V Harrison, 2014-04-15 Disturbing Conventions draws the study of Thai literature out of the relative isolation that has to date impeded its participation in the wider field of comparative and world literature Predominantly penned by Thai academics the collection decentres Thai literary studies in order to move beyond the traditionalist conservative concerns of the academy which have until relatively recently foreclosed the use of Western theory in the study of Thai literature The book introduces new frames of analysis to the study of Thai literature to bring it into dialogue with debates in wider fields and the world beyond its national borders As a result Disturbing Conventions offers an essential contribution to the comparative study of world literature and Asian cultural studies

Invasion Jochen Ecke,2018-12-28 What makes a successful comics creator How can storytelling stay exciting and innovative How can genres be kept vital Writers and artists in the highly competitive U S comics mainstream have always had to explore these questions but they were especially pressing in the 1980s As comics readers grew older they started calling for more sophisticated stories They were also no longer just following the adventures of popular characters writers and artists with distinctive styles were in demand DC Comics and Marvel went looking for such mavericks and found them in the United Kingdom Creators like Alan Moore Watchmen Saga of the Swamp Thing Grant Morrison The Invisibles Flex Mentallo and Garth Ennis Preacher migrated from the anarchical British comics industry to the U S mainstream and shook up the status quo yet came to rely on the genius of the American system The Transformational Potential of Higher Education

Inclusion Jesús Humberto Pineda Olivieri,2017 In the field of higher education research one of the most fascinating observations is the consistent and permanent expansion of higher education systems worldwide since the end of the Second World War Undoubtedly the predominant approach to address these developments has been through quantitative analysis as well as international comparisons The following work examines the particularities of the Venezuelan context with the aim of identifying specific features of this worldwide phenomenon in this South American case Through a combination of qualitative methods the author proposes a biographical approach for the study of higher education inclusion processes which takes into account the perspectives and experiences of those who have been targeted by an ambitious higher education expansion process The most distinctive feature of this work would be its methodological contribution to the field of higher education research One could also argue that the ethnographic account of the Bolivarian Missions of education in Chavez s Venezuela is both original and unprecedented Furthermore the writing approach bridges the interests of both academics practitioners of the field and members of the general public Combined Arms Center (CAC) Research and Publication Index ,2005 Index to selected publications of the Combined Arms Center
