

The image shows three loaves of rustic bread resting on a light-colored parchment-lined baking sheet. The bread has a thick, golden-brown crust with a mottled appearance, suggesting it was brushed with oil or egg wash before baking. The top loaf is a smaller, more rounded shape. The middle loaf is long and slender. The bottom loaf is also long and slender, featuring several diagonal slashes on its side. The background is a dark, reflective surface, possibly a countertop or another part of the baking sheet.
