Asian Migrations Beatriz P. Lorente, 2005 The migration of people within and beyond Asia no longer takes the form of permanent ruptures uprooting and resettlement Today such movement is more likely to be transient and complex ridden with disruptions and detours and based on translocal interconnections between places and multiple chains of movement Written from various disciplinary perspectives this collection of essays explores the migration experiences of a wide spectrum of people from professional and managerial elites to contract workers and refugees In addressing the nature of these Asian migrations the authors demonstrate how mobility in today s world has transformed notions of citizenship and identity and of Politics and Aesthetics in Contemporary Native American Literature Matthew Herman, 2010-02 displacement and home This book provides the historical framework for the shift in Native American literary studies away from cultural analyses toward more politically inflected and motivated perspectives and examines the key moments in this turn Imagination of the Beats David Stephen Calonne, 2017-08-17 The first comprehensive study to explore the role of esoteric occult alchemical shamanistic mystical and magical traditions in the work of major Beat authors Survivance Gerald Vizenor, 2008-11 In this anthology eighteen scholars discuss the themes and practices of survivance in literature examining the legacy of Vizenor's original insights and exploring the manifestations of survivance in a variety of contexts Contributors interpret and compare the original writings of William Apess Eric Gansworth Louis Owens Carter Revard Gerald Vizenor and Velma Wallis among others I Hear the Train Louis Owens, 2001 In this innovative collection Louis Owens blends autobiography short fiction and literary criticism to reflect on his experiences as a mixedblood Indian in America In sophisticated prose Owens reveals the many timbres of his voice humor humility love joy struggle confusion and clarity We join him in the fields farms and ranches of California We follow his search for a lost brother and contemplate along with him old family photographs from Indian Territory and early Oklahoma In a final section Owens reflects on the work and theories of other writers including Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Gerald Vizenor Michael Dorris and Louise Erdrich Volume 40 in the

American Indian Literature and Critical Studies Series Interdisciplinary and Cross-cultural Narratives in North America Mark Cronlund Anderson, Irene Maria Blayer, 2005 North America is becoming increasingly interdisciplinary and cross cultural In this emerging context narratives play a crucial role in weaving patterns that in turn provide fabrics for our lives In this thoroughly original collection Interdisciplinary and Cross Cultural Narratives in North America a dozen scholars deploy a variety of provocative and illuminating approaches to explore and understand the many ways that stories speak to from within and across culture s in North America Spider Web, Labyrinth, Tightrope Walk Regina Schober, 2023-08-07 Spider Web Labyrinth Tightrope Walk explores the shifting functions of the network as a metaphor model and as an epistemological framework in US American literature and culture from the 19th century until today The book critically inquires into the literary cultural philosophical and scientific rhetoric values and ideological underpinnings that have given rise to the network concept Literature and culture play a major role in the ways in which networks have been imagined and how they have evolved as conceptual models. This study regards networks as historically emergent and culturally constructed formations closely tied with the development of knowledge technologies in the process of modernization as well as with an increasingly critical awareness of network technologies and infrastructures While the rise of the network in scientific philosophical political and sociological discourses has received wide attention this book contributes an important cultural and historical perspective to network theory by demonstrating how US American literature and culture have been key sites for thinking in and about networks in the past two centuries The Myths That Made America Heike Paul, 2014-08-15 This essential introduction to American studies examines the core foundational myths upon which the nation is based and which still determine discussions of US American identities today These myths include the myth of discovery the Pocahontas myth the myth of the Promised Land the myth of the Founding Fathers the melting pot myth the myth of the West and the myth of the self made man The chapters provide extended analyses of each of these myths using examples from popular culture literature memorial culture school books and every day life Including visual material as well as study questions this book will be of interest to any student of American studies and will foster an understanding of the United States of America as an imagined community by analyzing the foundational role of myths in the process of nation building A Reader's Guide to Contemporary Literary Theory Raman Selden, Peter Widdowson, Peter Brooker, 2016-12-19 A Reader's Guide to Contemporary Literary Theory is a classic introduction to the complex yet crucial area of literary theory This book is known for its clear accessible style and its thorough logical approach guiding the reader through the essentials of literary theory It includes two new chapters New Materialisms which incorporates ecocriticism animal studies posthumanism and thing theory 21st Century and Future Developments which includes technology digital humanities ethics and affect Handbook of Descriptive Linguistic Fieldwork Shobhana L. Chelliah, Willem J. de Reuse, 2010-10-06 The Handbook of Descriptive Linguistic Fieldwork is the most comprehensive reference on linguistic fieldwork on the market bringing together all the reader needs to carry out successful linguistic fieldwork Based on the experiences of two veteran linguistic fieldworkers and advice from more than a twenty active fieldwork researchers this handbook provides an encyclopedic review of current publications on linguistic fieldwork and surveys past and present approaches and solutions to problems in the field and the historical political and social variables correlating with fieldwork in different areas of the world The discussion of the ethical dimensions of fieldwork as well as what constitutes the typical linguistic fieldwork setting or consultant is explored from multiple perspectives relevant to fieldwork on every continent Included is information omitted in most other texts on the subject such as the collection representation management and methods of extracting grammatical information from discourse and conversational data as well as the relationship between questionnaire based elicitation text based elicitation and philology and the need for combinations of these methods The book is useful before during and after linguistic field trips since it provides extensive practical macro and micro organization and planning fieldwork tips as well as a handy sketch of major typological features for use in linguistic analysis Comprehensive references are provided at the end of each chapter as resources relevant to the reader's particular interests
