Microeconomics for Managers, 2nd Edition David M. Kreps, 2019-01-29 A thoroughly revised new edition of a leading textbook that equips MBA students with the powerful tools of economics. This is a thoroughly revised and substantially streamlined new edition of a leading textbook that shows MBA students how understanding economics can help them make smarter and better informed real world management decisions. David Kreps, one of the world's most influential economists, has developed and refined Microeconomics for Managers over decades of teaching at Stanford's Graduate School of Business. Stressing game theory and strategic thinking and driven by in depth integrated case studies, the book shows future managers how economics can provide practical answers to critical business problems. Focuses on case studies and real companies such as Amazon, Microsoft, General Motors, United Airlines, and Xerox. Covers essential topics for future managers including price discrimination, Porter's five forces, risk sharing and spreading, signaling, and screening, credibility and reputation, and economics and organizational behavior. Features an online supplement available at micro4managers.stanford.edu for students that provides solutions to the problems in the book, longer caselike exercises, review problems, a calculus review, and more.

Research Anthology on Microfinance Services and Roles in Social Progress Management Association, Information Resources, 2022-09-23 Microfinance has emerged as a growing field as more businesses discover the benefits and opportunities it provides. To ensure that microfinance is utilized appropriately, further study on the best practices and difficulties is required. The Research Anthology on Microfinance Services and Roles in Social Progress considers the ways in which microfinance can be utilized to achieve social progress as well as the challenges and opportunities of this area. Covering key topics such as income, small businesses, entrepreneurship, and credit, this major reference work is ideal for industry professionals, government officials, computer scientists, entrepreneurs, business owners, managers, policymakers, researchers, scholars, practitioners, instructors, and students.
