Penser comme un rat Vinciane Despret, 2016-05-02 Que signifie la preuve du labyrinthe pour un rat Le fait de chercher comprendre le point de vue des animaux pourrait inciter les chercheurs modifier leurs pratiques Communicating Human and Non-Human Otherness Helena Pires, Zara Pinto-Coelho, Luísa Magalhães, 2024-12-23 This book approaches the generic theme of the series studies in otherness and communication from the perspectives of urban culture and posthumanist studies It brings together a broad variety of essays examining the different ways in which agency reinvents itself whether in the urban space through the multiple forms and devices of art and culture or through the relationship with technology and the surrounding environment as a result of the contemporary conditions of post humanism and the anthropocene The sense of becoming other is added through a new paradigm that combines 1 a theoretical essayistic mode supported by illustrative cases with 2 the description of artistic processes and literary production The essays are written by an international group of humanities and social sciences scholars artists consisting of Cristina Ivares Pier Luca Marzo Edwige Armand Chiara Mengozzi Ricardo G Soeiro Panagiotis Ferentinis Mónica Aubert Borrell Luis Campos Medina Bill Psarras Constantia Sanmartín Fernandes Micael Herschmann Mitja Velikonja Teresa Mora and Tiago Porteiro Dictionnaire Des Proverbs François P. J. P. D. L. N. D. L. E. F., 1749 Visual Plague Christos Lynteris, 2022-10-25 How epidemic photography during a global pandemic of bubonic plague contributed to the development of modern epidemiology and our concept of the pandemic In Visual Plague Christos Lynteris examines the emergence of epidemic photography during the third plague pandemic 1894-1959 a global pandemic of bubonic plague that led to over twelve million deaths Unlike medical photography epidemic photography was not exclusively or even primarily concerned with exposing the patient's body or medical examinations and operations Instead it played a key role in reconceptualizing infectious diseases by visualizing the pandemic as a new concept and structure of experience one that frames and responds to the smallest local outbreak of an infectious disease as an event of global importance and consequence As the third plague pandemic struck more and more countries the international circulation of plague photographs in the press generated an unprecedented spectacle of imminent global threat Nothing contributed to this sense of global interconnectedness anticipation and fear more than photography Exploring the impact of epidemic photography at the time of its emergence Lynteris highlights its entanglement with colonial politics epistemologies and aesthetics as well as with major shifts in epidemiological thinking and public health practice He explores the characteristics uses and impact of epidemic photography and how it differs from the general corpus of medical photography The new photography was used not simply to visualize or illustrate a pandemic but to articulate respond to and unsettle key questions of epidemiology and epidemic control as well as to foster the notion of the pandemic which continues to affect our lives today French Thinking about Animals Louisa Mackenzie, Stephanie Posthumus, 2015-04-01 Bringing together leading scholars from Belgium Canada France and the United States French Thinking about Animals makes available for the first time to an Anglophone readership a rich variety of interdisciplinary approaches to the animal question in France While the work of French thinkers such as Jacques Derrida Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari has been available in English for many years French Thinking about Animals opens up a much broader cross cultural dialogue within animal studies These original essays many of which have been translated especially for this volume draw on anthropology ethology geography history legal studies phenomenology and philosophy to interrogate human animal relationships They explore the many ways in which animals signify in French history society and intellectual history illustrating the exciting new perspectives being developed about the animal question in the French speaking world today Built on the strength and diversity of these contributions French Thinking about Animals demonstrates the interdisciplinary and internationalism that are needed if we hope to transform the interactions of humans and nonhuman animals in contemporary society

A Plea for the Animals Matthieu Ricard, 2016-10-04 A powerful and wide ranging indictment of the treatment of animals by humans and an eloquent plea for animal rights Every cow just wants to be happy Every chicken just wants to be free Every bear dog or mouse experiences sorrow and feels pain as intensely as any of us humans do In a compelling appeal to reason and human kindness Matthieu Ricard here takes the arguments from his best sellers Altruism and Happiness to their logical conclusion that compassion toward all beings including our fellow animals is a moral obligation and the direction toward which any enlightened society must aspire He chronicles the appalling sufferings of the animals we eat wear and use for adornment or entertainment and submits every traditional justification for their exploitation to scientific evidence and moral scrutiny What arises is an unambiguous and powerful ethical imperative for treating all of the animals with whom we share this planet with respect and compassion

The Ethics of Animal Labor Jocelyne Porcher, 2017-02-15 This book argues for a moral consideration of animal work relations Paying special attention to the livestock industry the author challenges the zootechnical denigration of animals for increased productivity awhile championing the collaborative nature of work For Porcher work is not merely a means to production but a means of living together unity This unique reconsideration of work envisions animals as co laborers with humans rather than overwrought tools for exploitative and often lethal employment Readers will learn about the disjunction between those focused on productivity and profit and those who favor a more ethical work environment for animals Porcher's text also engages environmental and political debates concerning animal human relations

Through the Scope of Life María Antonia González Valerio, Polona Tratnik, 2023-06-28 This book offers intriguing philosophical inquiries into biotechnological art and the life sciences addressing their convergences as well as their epistemic and functional divergences Rooted on a thorough understanding of the history of philosophy this work builds on critical and ontological thought to interpret the concept of life that underscores first hand dealings with matter and experimentation The book breaks new ground on the issue of animality and delivers fresh posthumanist perspectives on the topics addressed The authors embark on a deep ontological probe of the concept of medium as communication bridging and life bearing They also take on the concept of performativity as biotechnological art The book includes concrete well documented case studies and shows how certain narratives and practices directly impact ideas surrounding science and technologies It will interest philosophers in art and technology aesthetics ontology and the life sciences It will also engage art practitioners in art and science curators and researchers Science and the Self Ian James Kidd, Liz

Dismissed by some as the last of the anti Darwinians his fame as a rigorous biologist even tainted by an alleged link to National Socialist ideology it is undeniable that Jakob von Uexk ll 1864 1944 was eagerly read by many philosophers across the spectrum of philosophical schools from Scheler to Merleau Ponty and Deleuze and from Heidegger to Blumenberg and Agamben What has then allowed his name to survive the misery of history as well as the usually fatal gap between science and humanities This collection of essays attempts for the first time to do justice to Uexk ll s theoretical impact on Western culture By highlighting his importance for philosophy the book aims to contribute to the general interpretation of the relationship between biology and philosophy in the last century and explore the often neglected connection between continental philosophy and the sciences of life Thanks to the exploration of Uexk ll s conceptual legacy the origins of cybernetics the overcoming of metaphysical dualisms and a refined understanding of organisms appear variedly interconnected Uexk ll s background and his relevance in current debates are thoroughly examined as to appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as postdoctoral researchers in fields such as history of the life sciences philosophy of biology critical animal studies philosophical anthropology biosemiotics and biopolitics The Philosophical Ethology of Vinciane Despret Brett Buchanan, Matthew Chrulew, Jeffrey Bussolini, 2018-10-19 Vinciane Despret is a Belgian philosopher whose work proposes new questions and approaches to human animal relations Of central importance to her thought is an intellectual and cultural proposal to allow animals to show their agency and allow them to be interesting With genuine curiosity Despret looks at how humans and animals transform one another through daily encounters and she explores these metamorphoses through an engagement with the history of philosophy literature science field research and art In a playful though serious tone Despret claims that animals are always more interesting than we give them credit for and that the achievements of animals are never far from our own This book was originally published as a special issue of Angelaki Journal of the Theoretical Humanities Animots Matthew Senior, David L. Clark, Carla Freccero, 2015-01-01 The latest volume of Yale French Studies addresses French inspired theoretical and philosophical concerns centered on animals and animality Contributors from France the United Kingdom and North America discuss animal related topics in the French philosophical and literary tradition offering a wide range of perspectives on animals ethics and the future of animal studies Essays question the reducibility of animal lives to rights discourse on the one hand and scientific empiricisms on the other and examine whether and how the advent of the posthuman will affect the standing and the future of the nonhuman animal

Sensory Experiences Danièle Dubois, Caroline Cance, Matt Coler, Arthur Paté, Catherine Guastavino, 2021-12-15 Sensory Experiences Exploring meaning and the senses describes the collective elaboration of a situated cognitive approach with an emphasis on the relations between language and cognition within and across different sensory modalities and practices This approach grounded in 40 years of empirical research is a departure from the analytic reductive view of human experiences as information processing The book is structured into two parts Each author first introduces the situated cognitive approach from their respective sensory domains vision audition olfaction gustation The second part is the collective effort to derive methodological guidelines respecting the ecological validity of experimental investigations while formulating operational answers to applied questions such as the sensory quality of environments and product design This book will be of interest to students researchers and practitioners dealing with sensory experiences and anyone who wants to understand and celebrate the cultural diversity of human productions that make life enjoyable

Care Ethics in the Age of Precarity Maurice Hamington, Michael Flower, 2021-11-30 How care can resist the stifling force of the neoliberal paradigm In a world brimming with tremendous wealth and resources too many are suffering the oppression of precarious existences and with no adequate relief from free market driven institutions Care Ethics in the Age of Precarity assembles an international group of interdisciplinary scholars to explore the question of care theory as a response to market driven capitalism addressing the relationship of three of the most compelling social and political subjects today care precarity and neoliberalism While care theory often centers on questions of individual actions and choices this collection instead connects theory to the contemporary political moment and public sphere The contributors address the link between neoliberal values such as individualism productive exchange and the free market and the pervasive state of precarity and vulnerability in which so many find themselves From disability studies and medical ethics to natural disaster responses and the posthuman examples from Mori Dutch and Japanese politics to the COVID 19 pandemic and the Black Lives Matter movement this collection presents illuminating new ways of considering precarity in our world Care Ethics in the Age of Precarity offers a hopeful tone in the growing valorization of care demonstrating the need for an innovative approach to precarity within entrenched systems of oppression and a change in priorities around the basic needs of humanity Contributors Andries Baart U Medical Center Utrecht Tilburg U and Catholic Theological U Utrecht the Netherlands Vrinda Dalmiya U of Hawaii M noa Emilie Dionne U Laval Maggie FitzGerald U of Saskatchewan Sacha Ghandeharian Carleton U Eva Feder Kittay Stony Brook U SUNY Carlo Leget U of Humanistic Studies in Utrecht the Netherlands Sarah Clark Miller Penn State U Luigina Mortari U of Verona Yayo Okano Doshisha U Kyoto Japan Elena Pulcini U of Florence
