<sup>1</sup> This paper will not discuss the various forms of violence that are inflicted upon women in an abusive relationship. For a discussion of this topic, see Johnson (1995). It will focus on a particular aspect of that phenomenon, namely, the use of fear as a means to maintain control over women. This is a particularly insidious and often unrecognized aspect of abuse, and it will be shown how it can be used to maintain control over women in a variety of ways. The author will also discuss the various ways in which women can resist this form of abuse.
