INTRODUCTION

The authors are grateful to the U.S. Office of Naval Research, the Army, the Air Force, and a private defense contractor for the generous support and encouragement they have provided throughout the project.

Proteinase inhibitors are present in many plants and animals. They are important in the defense of plants against herbivores and in the defense of animals against pathogens. They are also important in the regulation of blood clotting and in the regulation of the immune system.

— Journal of the American Medical Association

Concurrent use of proton pump inhibitors with clopidogrel has been associated with a 50% reduction in platelet reactivity, suggesting that the mechanism of action of clopidogrel may be inhibited. The effect of this combination on platelet reactivity has been studied in patients with acute coronary syndrome.
