Man In His Time: William C. Prentiss, 2013-10 One Man In His Time A Memoir is an account of a full life which includes

Prentiss's participation in both national and local politics at a high level and his friendship with major figures including Sen George McGovern and many others. He had two meetings with Gov Jimmy Carter during his presidential campaigns and he was a guest in the Reagan White House to receive a major medal. Other portions of his memoir describe mostly in anecdotal accounts his extensive work with troubled teenagers sent to his program by the Orange County Florida Juvenile Court. He was also a teacher and administrator at both the secondary Florida Military School and college Valencia College in Orlando levels of education. He reached many high goals in his life despite having a troubled early adolescence which he describes in detail. His Air Force experience as an Intelligence Officer was also one of high adventure. Prentiss has described himself psychologically as a seeker of high sensation. This is borne out in his memoir including his choice to be a Volunteer Fireman and his Air Force close calls. Much of his life is told in the details of his life and times. A reader will have a better feel for the years between 1932 and the present after reading this Memoir.

Unrequited Time James McCurrach, 2011-09 James C McCurrach was born in Brooklyn New York and was the namesake of a self made business success story. He had a privileged upbringing that included a succession of private schools culminating in a B A from Brown University in Providence R I. He traveled a circuitous route as an adult a journey that included tennis a Vice Presidency at the former Bankers Trust Company in New York City as well as the principal in a New York restaurant. After many personal hurdles he finally succeeded in his original goal of a teaching career. Additionally his work assisting foreign students in the English language resulted in the publication of two English textbooks for English beginners in Japan and Korea. He is a former squash racquets champion with numerous top ten rankings in various age categories. He resides in San Francisco with his partner of 29 years. This Memoir is dedicated to P Justin Jacobs for his loyalty support and continuing encouragement. A troubled youth in search of direction finds himself groping to find his place despite numerous obstacles centering about his Father looking for a duplicate. Such are some of the problems facing James C McCurrach Jr as he passes through his early childhood years and the social upheavals encountered on the path to a new century. All of this is complicated by his growing uncertainty of his sexual proclivities at a time when homosexuality was ridiculed and considered a deviancy beyond the pale. At the same time his Father's influence was a constant presence that would lead to a series of disasters both socially and financially. Despite trying to throw off his Father's yoke there remained a continuing need to please him and establish some sort of positive approval resulting in a series of tumultuous relationships and career moves. His Mom had always told the youngster that he would be a late bloomer and indeed that prediction would come to pass as in his later years the teaching profession would provide the purpose and rewards that had long eluded him.
