Language Arts and Literacy in the Middle Grades Margaret J. Finders, Susan Hynds, 2007 From two prominent scholars in the field of literacy comes a middle school teacher preparation text that offers important innovations not usually found in traditional secondary methods texts. The book is rife with concrete examples of teaching literacy and language arts in middle school contexts but is relevant to preservice and practicing teachers at middle and high school levels. This edition includes a stronger focus on culturally relevant pedagogy and the needs of English Language Learners as well as a Standards in Practice feature which helps teachers incorporate state and national standards in teaching and planning. The book is based on a teacher as inquirer model. A fieldwork component provides tools for classroom inquiry and reflection in each chapter. The book is timely and relevant with classroom cases written by experienced and new middle school language arts teachers.

Houston Private and Select Public Schools Shelby Joe, Stephen Hayes, 2013-08-09 Now in its third edition, General Academic's comprehensive guide to Houston private and select public schools contains more than 300 pages of advice, analysis, school profiles, and more. Our publication should provide the basic building blocks for parents to jump start their journey in researching, applying to, and selecting a school for their child. This third edition features profiles on 41 private and 23 select public schools in and around Houston's 610 Loop and Beltway 8 highways. General Academic is an academic consulting and supplementary education company based in Houston's Rice Village; it was founded in 2003.

Reinventing the Middle School Thomas S. Dickinson, 2013-06-17 Many contemporary American middle schools are stuck in a state of arrested development, failing to implement the original concept of middle schools to a varying though equally corruptive degree. The individual chapters of the book outline in detail how to counter this dangerous trend, offering guidance to those who seek immediate significant internal reforms before we lose the unique value of middle schools for our nation's adolescents.

Scaffolding for Success Barbara R. Blackburn, 2024-09-25 Support and scaffolding are critical for moving students to higher levels of learning. But how do we ensure we're giving the right work and not just extra work? Barbara R. Blackburn has the answers in this important new book. She provides a plethora of strategies for helping students create meaning and become more independent so they can truly learn at rigorous levels First she examines the basics of rigor and scaffolding and uncovers the role of planning in scaffolding including the difference between acceleration and remediation and examples of differentiating instruction with scaffolding Then she demonstrates a variety of ways to add scaffolding into classroom discourse vocabulary comprehension and writing across the curriculum Ideas and strategies are provided for different subject areas and levels so you can easily apply them to your own setting And finally she shows the roles of formative assessment and social emotional learning in scaffolding With this practical book you ll have a toolkit of great ideas at your disposal as you foster a learning environment of high expectations and success

Research in Education ,1973 Service-learning Alan S. Waterman,2014-03-18 Linking research and educational practice for the benefit of both is not a new idea If practice such as service learning is a bold departure from the status quo however research is not just beneficial it is critical If schools are to become laboratories of democracy and entrepreneurship and if students are to become engaged as partners in renewal of their communities a research case must be made for service learning Does learning take place Will other kinds of learning suffer What kinds of practice are most effective Clearly solid research is essential if this transforming way of teaching and learning is to be fully integrated into American schooling and youth development institutions The National Youth Leadership Council NYLC took a first step toward joining service learning practice with research in 1983 In 1991 NYLC created a center which initiated and encouraged program evaluation formative research that informs and improves practice and summative studies that measure results This volume grew out of a National Service Learning Conference an annual event convened by the NYLC A day long research seminar at the conference brought together researchers to discuss the latest developments among themselves and with practitioners Impressive in their range and rigor their papers offer documentation and analysis useful to an emerging research knowledge base It is a starting point for the evidence needed to firmly establish service learning for K 12 age people as a widely accepted way of teaching and learning
