Self-Action Leadership (Volume I) Jordan R. Jensen,2019-08-30 Self Action Leadership Volumes 1 and 2 provides the first and only books of their kind in the academic world today This two volume set single handedly carves out a new and unique scholarly niche by providing the first comprehensive and secular manual to holistically address society s universal need for personal leadership and character education Its single minded aim is the global promotion and proliferation of leadership character and life skills education in nations communities organizations schools homes and individual lives everywhere The concept of Self Action Leadership SAL is rooted in 30 years of extensive research spanning the fields of self leadership leadership action research character education and autoethnography In addition to drawing on the scholarship of these extant fields SAL simultaneously builds upon them by introducing an original theory and model that executives administrators scholars teachers and practitioners alike can universally utilize to their own advantages and to the benefit of their colleagues subordinates and students Volume I The Self Action Leadership Theory contains prefacing material for the combined texts It also includes the first four book sections of the two volume set Giftedness and Talent in the 21st Century Don Ambrose,Robert J.

Sternberg,2016-07-15 When today s gifted and talented young people emerge into adulthood will they be able to overcome some enormous 21st century problems that are pushing us toward large scale socioeconomic devastation Will they be able to capitalize on unprecedented opportunities that can lead to widespread prosperity and fulfillment This book explores these questions while yielding insights from many of the world s leading scholars of giftedness and talent development Until now there has been inadequate understanding of 21st century trends and issues that influence the gifted and talented The book provides some clarity by establishing a big picture interdisciplinary overview of the socioeconomic cultural and technological pressures emerging from 21st century globalization and describing some ways in which those pressures simultaneously suppress distort and invigorate the discovery of aspirations and the development of talents Throughout the volume prominent scholars of gifted education and talent development use their impressive knowledge bases to clarify how we can adjust our thoughts and actions in order to give ourselves the best possible chances for success in this complex world This impressive volume edited by two of the world s leading thinkers on these topics includes the perspectives of many of our best thinkers on issues of talent development and giftedness and they offer an array of provocative perspectives on how we can better address our culture s and our economy s tremendous need for talent in the 21st century Jonathan Plucker Julian C Stanley Endowed Professor of Talent Development Johns Hopkins University Turbulence in the subtitle is apt The text Giftedness and Talent in the 21st Century is filled with strongly voiced perspectives from international authors who focus on how to conceptualize education as a creative and holistic enterprise within the context of globalization Ann Robinson Past President National Association for Gifted Children Trauma-Informed Care in Social Work Education Lea Tufford,Arielle

Dylan,2025-03-28 Structured and informed by social justice orientations this essential volume explores how trauma informed care can be integrated in all aspects of social work education This handbook incorporates a critical and ecologically focused lens with an emphasis on resilience healing and strengths based approaches With contributions from over 60 experts in the field of social work education psychology and counselling this comprehensive book provides current understandings of how trauma manifests in the lived experience of social work students The book begins by introducing why trauma informed care is needed in social work and addresses the reality of historical trauma Each chapter views the social work student at the center of the educational journey and considers how trauma can shape experiences in various settings such as the classroom curriculum field educational policy and community involvement and support services Chapters cover topics such as the neuroscience of trauma poverty disability racism experiential approaches online course delivery climate change mindfulness student mental wellbeing and more This handbook is a must read for social work educators and field instructors who seek to prevent and lessen trauma in their social work pedagogy It is also beneficial for undergraduate and graduate courses such as child and youth care addiction services and foundations of social work

Handbook of Quality of Life and Social Change Cornelia C. Walther, 2024-10-04 This handbook provides an extensive overview of the links between quality of life and social change as pursued in not only humanitarian and development work but also in the private sector and academia It combines theoretical and practice focused chapters and addresses socio economic environmental and political governance aspects as well as communication and human behavioural factors that favour or hamper social change dynamics The handbook showcases vast diversity both in the authorship which includes practitioners from a wide range of sectors and academics from various disciplines as well in geographical contexts and regions The chapters cover a wide range methods and tools which facilitate an inclusive understanding of the relationship between quality of life and social change They show connections between micro individual changes and the dynamics that derive from them at the meso community macro country and meta levels planet of quality of life and the social change processes sustained through time The chapters demonstrate that quality of life and social change mutually condition and nurture each other The handbook overall provides a holistic perspective to social change processes that includes both material and non material aspects relating to quality of life This comprehensive and one of a kind volume is of interest to a wide readership from students and researchers of social development quality of life and wellbeing research to development workers policy makers and other government officials The handbook is bundled with an interactive online course

Servant Leadership, Social Entrepreneurship and the Will to Serve Luk Bouckaert, Steven C. van den Heuvel, 2019-11-28 This book brings together a number of important essays on the intersection of servant leadership and social entrepreneurship examining them through a shared focus on the will to serve This combination bears out the insight that inspiring social and economic leaders are able to transform a conflictual human settlement into a collaborative and caring human community The book seeks to answer the question of whether we can induce from their way of doing things a model of civic entrepreneurship and leadership that can inspire people in profit non profit and public organizations It also examines the extent to which the will to serve is compatible with the will to maximize profit or the will to gain economic political or religious power Furthermore it asks how far different spiritual traditions create different models and examples of servant leadership and social entrepreneurship This book will be of interest to researchers working in the fields of business ethics business spirituality and corporate social responsibility

Spiritually and Developmentally Mature Leadership Daniel E. Harris, Lori Holyfield, Linda Jones, Rhonda Ellis, Judi Neal, 2019-02-21 The book goes beyond theory to offer tools and suggestions for developing emerging leaders Inspired by the pioneering work of leadership scholar Andre Delbecq this book points towards an expanded model of leadership that incorporates an active inner life and posits that such fully human models of leadership will be essential to meet the profound challenges of the 21st Century Without presuming to provide definitive answers the text explores central questions such as What is the added value of spiritual maturity to leadership Would the integration of mature spirituality with well developed intellectual and emotional capacities produce more beneficial leadership outcomes for organizations and individuals What would a spiritually and developmentally mature emerging leader look like in 10 to 20 years How do we prepare emerging leaders for the challenges they may face and how do we model spiritually and developmentally mature leadership in ways that resonate with them

Professor Andre Delbecq 1936-2016 of the University of Santa Clara created the heuristic of spiritually and developmentally mature leaders to encapsulate his observation that outstanding leaders often seemed to draw strength and wisdom from sources that are not typically studied or taught in leadership courses Thirty scholars and practitioners accepted Delbecq's heuristic as the starting point to explore spiritual components of leadership that do not easily lend themselves to quantification or clear causal links The analysis of their disciplined engagement with the heuristic forms the foundation of an exploratory fully human understanding of leadership This analysis is supported by literature reviews including an overview of Andre Delbecq's relevant work Ultimately the authors call for further collaboration across disciplines and between research and practice to build on the conceptual constructs offered here and especially to create pedagogies for the training of spiritually and developmentally mature leaders

12 Steps of Self-Leadership Doug Lester, Cheryl Lester, 2016-01-12 Self leadership is about realizing the power and potential that is in you and everyone you meet The world needs you now in your imperfection and in the midst of your formative processes You do make a difference The important question is What kind of difference do you make You are about to set out on an exciting exploration of your inner world The 12 Steps of Self Leadership is designed to help you identify and overcome the beliefs and behaviours that are holding you back clarify and leverage your strengths and natural giftings increase your Difference Making Quotient live and lead on purpose This transformational guide is relevant at any stage of your life or leadership journey and will help you increase your awareness and effectiveness in life work and relationships By fully engaging in the 12 Steps of Self Leadership you will dramatically increase your Difference Making Quotient and your ability to lead Self and others
